DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

[REDACTED]

Reg. No: 2007-16994
Issue No: 4060

[REDACTED]

Washtenaw County DHS

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Vicki L. Armstrong

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to 7 CFR 273.18, 45 CFR 233.20(a)(13), MCL 400.9, MCL 400.37, MCL 400.43(a), MAC R 400.941 and MCL 24.201, et seq., upon a hearing request by the Department of Human Services (department) to establish an overissuance of benefits to Respondent. After due notice was mailed to Respondent, a hearing was held June 14, 2011, at which Respondent did not appear. This matter having been initiated by the department and due notice having been provided to Respondent, the hearing was held in Respondent's absence in accordance with Bridges Administrative Manual, Item 725.

ISSUE

Whether Respondent received an overissuance of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the department is entitled to recoup?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the clear and convincing evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Respondent was receiving FAP benefits at all times pertinent to this hearing. (Hearing Summary)
2. Respondent signed Assistance Application (DHS-1171) on July 16, 2004, acknowledging that she understood her failure to give timely, truthful, complete and accurate information about her circumstances could result in a civil or criminal action or an administrative claim against her. (Department Exhibits 19-26).

3. As a result of a Quarterly Wage Match, the agency discovered it had erred by failing to budget Respondent's income. Verification of employment from [REDACTED] was received by the department on August 11, 2004 and December 20, 2004, showing Respondent was employed by Phoenix Services and had been since August 2, 2004. (Department Exhibits 4-15).
4. Respondent received [REDACTED] in FAP benefits during the alleged fraud period of October 2004 through January, 2005. If the income had been properly budgeted by the department, Respondent would only have been eligible to receive [REDACTED] in FAP benefits. (Department Exhibits 16-18, 27-36).
5. The department failed to properly budget Respondent's income, resulting in a FAP overissuance for the months of October 2004 through January, 2005, in the amount of [REDACTED] (Department Exhibits 16-18, 27-36).

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program) is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

Departmental policy, BAM 725, Collection Actions, states that when the client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, DHS must attempt to recoup the overissuance (OI). Repayment of an OI is the responsibility of anyone who was an eligible, disqualified, or other adult in the program group at the time the OI occurred. Bridges will collect from all adults who were a member of the case. OIs on active programs are repaid by lump sum cash payments, monthly cash payments (when court ordered), and administrative recoupment (benefit reduction). OI balances on inactive cases must be repaid by lump sum or monthly cash payments unless collection is suspended.

In this case, the department has admitted that Respondent timely reported her income and the department did not follow their own policies in budgeting Respondent's income. Because the department failed to budget Respondent's income, Respondent received an overissuance of FAP benefits. Regardless of fault, the department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. Here, Respondent received [REDACTED] during the period of October 2004 through January, 2005. If the department had properly budgeted Respondent's income, Respondent would only have been eligible to receive [REDACTED]. As a result, Respondent received an overissuance of [REDACTED].

This Administrative Law Judge finds that the evidence presented by the department shows that Respondent received more benefits that she was entitled to receive. Therefore, Respondent is responsible for repayment of the overissuance.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that Respondent received an overissuance of FAP benefits for the time period of October 2004 through January, 2005, that the department is entitled to recoup.

The department is therefore entitled to recoup FAP overissuance of [REDACTED] from Respondent.

It is SO ORDERED.
