FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) Negative action: Denial on March 4, 2008 of Medicaid application on February 29, 2008 filed by the claimant's daughter and denied per PAM 110.
- (2) On March 4, 2008, negative action notice was mailed and received by [REDACTED]; and negative action notice was mailed to the daughter at her address given on the application which was not returned to the DHS as undeliverable by the U.S. Postal Authority. This address was also the decedent's (claimant's) address.

2008-24867/was

(3) The application provided in Box #5 that if the daughter's address was different from the address provided in Box #4 to provide it, if different; no different mailing address was provided by the daughter.

(4) [REDACTED] claims that the DHS was put on notice of the claimant's death and had a responsibility to phone the daughter, [REDACTED] for the daughter's correct address for mailing purposes.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

Facts above are undisputed.

The department must allow the applicant or recipient a reasonable time, not to exceed 90 days from the date that notice of action is mailed, to request a hearing. 42 CFR 431.221.

PAM 600 provides that notice of negative action shall be mailed to the applicant.

Negative action notices were mailed to both the claimant's daughter and her representative [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] received its notice and the daughter's notice was never returned as undeliverable by the U.S. Postal Authority.

The DHS representative testified to the step-by-step process for mailing the notice to the daughter: The daughter's name and her address given on the application were put on the notice and placed in a window envelope, the envelope was picked up and transferred to the U.S. Postal Stamping Unit in the DHS, and then delivered to the U.S. Postal Authority for delivery to the claimant's daughter.

█ claims that the DHS had the responsibility to phone █ and the daughter for her address. There is nothing in PAM 600 to support this claim.

█ was the representative for the daughter and had the responsibility to file a timely hearing request and/or follow up with the daughter regarding the matter.

Therefore, this ALJ is not persuaded that a timely hearing request was made in this matter.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that timely hearing request was not established.

Accordingly, Medicaid denial UPHELD.
