ISSUE

Did Respondent commit a third Food Assistance Program (FAP) Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) Respondent was a FAP recipient during the period of December 2005 through December 2006. The group size was five. Her son, [REDACTED], was included in the group.
- (2) Respondent completed a re-determination application for public assistance on February 15, 2006, acknowledging her responsibility to report changes in income or resources to the Department within 10 days of the change.
- (3) Respondent's son was receiving earned income from his employment at a [REDACTED] [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] through [REDACTED]. Respondent received earned income from her employment at [REDACTED].
- (4) Although Respondent reported her income, she failed to report her son's income from his job at [REDACTED] to the Department in a timely manner.
- (5) The total unreported income during the period at issue – October 31, 2005 through December 11, 2006 was [REDACTED].
- (6) Due to Respondent's failure to report her son's earned income, she received a [REDACTED] FAP overissuance for the period of December 1, 2005 through December 31, 2006 (Exhibit p. 20).
- (7) The Department sent Respondent written notice of the IPV overissuance and a repayment agreement, which Respondent failed to sign.
- (8) This is Respondent's third intentional program violation or willful withholding of information needed to determine Respondent's eligibility for public assistance.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program) is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

In this case, the Department has requested a disqualification hearing to establish an overissuance of benefits as a result of an IPV and the Department has asked that Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits. The Department's manuals provide the following relevant policy statements and instructions for Department caseworkers:

DEPARTMENT POLICY

All Programs

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, DHS must attempt to recoup the overissuance (OI). This item explains OI types and standards of promptness (SOP).

Definitions

The Automated Recoupment System (ARS) is the part of CIMS that tracks all FIP, SDA and FAP OIs and payments, issues automated collection notices and triggers automated benefit reductions for active programs.

A claim is the resulting debt created by an overissuance of benefits.

The Discovery Date is determined by the Recoupment Specialist (RS) for a client or agency error. This is the date the OI is known to exist and there is evidence available to determine the OI type. For an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) the Office of Inspector General (OIG) determines the discovery date. This is the date the referral was sent to the prosecutor or the date that OIG requested an administrative disqualification hearing.

The Establishment Date for an OI is:

The date the DHS-4358A-D, Repay Agreement, is sent to the client and for an IPV the date the DHS-4357 is sent notifying the client when the disqualification and recoupment will start.

An overissuance (OI) is the amount of benefits issued to the client group or CDC provider in excess of what they were eligible to receive. For FAP benefits, an OI is also the amount of benefits trafficked (traded or sold).

Overissuance Type identifies the cause of an overissuance.

Recoupment is a DHS action to identify and recover a benefit OI.

A Recoupment Specialist (RS) is the specialist assigned to process OIs and act as liaison with OIG, Reconciliation and Recoupment Section (RRS), and other personnel involved with recoupment and collections. (PAM 700, p. 1).

INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

DEFINITIONS

All Programs

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities.

IPV is suspected when there is clear and convincing evidence that the client or CDC provider has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility.

FAP Only

IPV is suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits.

IPV FIP, SDA and FAP

The client/authorized representative (AR) is determined to have committed an IPV by:

- A court decision.
- An administrative hearing decision.
- The client signing a DHS-826, Request for Waiver of Disqualification Hearing or DHS-830, Disqualification Consent Agreement or other recoupment and disqualification agreement forms.

FIP Only

The Aid to Families with Dependent Children (ADC) program was succeeded by the Family Independence Program (FIP). Treat these programs as interchangeable when applying IPV disqualification policy.

Example: Clients who committed an IPV while receiving ADC are to be disqualified under the FIP program.

FAP Only

IPV exists when an administrative hearing decision, a repayment and disqualification agreement or court decision determines FAP benefits were trafficked.

MA and CDC Only

IPV exists when the client/AR or CDC provider:

- Is found guilty of fraud by a court, or
- Signs a DHS-4350 and the prosecutor or the office of inspector general (OIG), authorizes recoupment in lieu of prosecution, or
- Is found responsible for the IPV by an administrative law judge conducting an IPV or debt establishment hearing. (PAM 720, pg. 1-2)

OVERISSUANCE AMOUNT

FIP, SDA, CDC and FAP

The amount of the OI is the benefit amount the group or provider actually received minus the amount the group was eligible to receive.

Estimate the OI amount pending OIG investigation results if:

- IPV is suspected, and
- You do not have enough information to determine the exact amount.

FAP Only

When the OI involves two or more FAP groups which should have received benefits as one group, determine the OI amount by:

- Adding together all benefits received by the groups that must be combined, and
- Subtracting the correct benefits for the one combined group.

FAP Trafficking The OI amount for trafficking-related IPVs is the value of the trafficked benefits as determined by:

- The court decision.

- The individual's admission.
- Documentation used to establish the trafficking determination. (PAM 720, pg. 6-7).

DISQUALIFICATION

FIP, SDA and FAP Only

Disqualify an active or inactive recipient who:

- Is found by a court or hearing decision to have committed IPV, or
- Has signed a DHS-826 or DHS-830, or
- Is convicted of concurrent receipt of assistance by a court, or
- For FAP, is found by SOAHR or a court to have trafficked FAP benefits.

A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them. Other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits.

See PEM 400, 518, and 554 for treatment of the assets and income of disqualified group members.

Standard Disqualification Periods

FIP, SDA and FAP

The standard disqualification period is used in all instances except when a court orders a different period (see Non-Standard Disqualification Periods in this item). Apply the following disqualification periods to recipients determined to have committed IPV:

- One year for the first IPV.
- Two years for the second IPV.
- Lifetime for the third IPV.

FIP and FAP Only

- Ten years for concurrent receipt of benefits (see PEM 203). (PAM 720, pg. 12-13).

Clear and convincing evidence establishes that Respondent committed a third FAP Intentional Program Violation. Although Respondent was aware of her reporting responsibilities, she intentionally failed to report information that was needed to determine her eligibility for FAP benefits. There is no evidence on the record of any justifiable excuse for Respondent's failure to report.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the clear and convincing evidence, decides that Respondent committed her third FAP Intentional Program Violation, resulting in an overissuance of [REDACTED] in FAP benefits.

Accordingly, the Administrative Law Judge ORDERS that Respondent shall be required to reimburse the Department in the amount of [REDACTED] for FAP benefits that were improperly received.
