HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9; and MCL 400.37 upon claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a hearing was held on March 11, 2009. Claimant appeared and testified.

ISSUE

Did the Department of Human Services determine the proper amount of claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) Claimant was an ongoing recipient of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.
- (2) On December 19, 2008, the department ran a financial eligibility budget to include an increase in claimant's Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and a reduction in his rent. Claimant was sent notice his benefits would be reduced effective in January 2009.

(3) On December 19, 2008, the department caseworker made the proper computer entries of the change. Claimant was sent a notice of case action that his benefits would be reduced as of December 30, 2008.

(4) On December 30, 2008, claimant submitted a request for hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program) is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

During the hearing claimant did not dispute the income or expense amounts used in the financial eligibility budget. Claimant stated he only submitted the request for hearing in hopes of keeping the higher amount of benefits until the date of the hearing. Claimant did not continue receiving the higher amount of benefits because he did not submit a timely hearing request. Claimant's benefits were reduced at 12:01 am on December 30, 2008, before he submitted his request for hearing.

When determining eligibility for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits in accordance with department policy, the total income of the household must be evaluated. All earned and unearned income of each household member must be included, unless specifically excluded. Program Eligibility Manual, Item 500. The Food Assistance Program (FAP) program provides a deduction from earned income of 20% and a deduction for the cost of child care when necessary to enable a Food Assistance Program (FAP) household member to work. A standard deduction from income is allowed for each household. The amount of the standard deduction depends on the number of members in the household. Certain non-reimbursable medical expenses above $ [REDACTED] a month may be deducted for senior/disabled/veteran group members.

Another deduction from income is provided if monthly shelter costs are in excess of 50% of the household's income, after all of the other deductions have been allowed. There is a maximum deduction for households that do not contain a member classified as a senior, disabled, or veteran. Program Eligibility Manual, Items 500 and 554; Program Reference Manual, Table 255; 7 CFR 273.2.

In this case, the Administrative Law Judge has reviewed the Food Assistance Program (FAP) budget and finds that the department properly computed the claimant's net income and expenses. The federal regulations at 7 CFR 273.10 provide standards for the amount of a household's benefits. The department in compliance with the federal regulations has prepared issuance tables which are set forth at Program Reference Manual, Table 260. The issuance table provides that a household with household size and net income of the claimant's is eligible for a Food Assistance Program (FAP) allotment of $ [REDACTED].

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides the Department of Human Services determines the proper amount of claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

It is ORDERED that the actions of the Department of Human Services, in this matter, are UPHELD.
