ISSUE

Did the Department of Human Services (the department) properly cancel claimant's Medical Assistance (Adult Medical Program) and Food Assistance Program (FAP) based upon its determination that claimant failed to provide verification information in a timely manner?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) Claimant had an active AMP and FAP case.
- (2) A review was due in the case in December 2008.

(3) A Verification Checklist was mailed to claimant on November 5, 2008 requesting claimant to attend an interview on December 8, 2008 at [REDACTED] and informing her of what verifications were needed to complete the review.

(4) On December 1, 2008, the worker mailed a new Verification Checklist changing the claimant's appointment to December 9, 2008 at [REDACTED]

(5) Claimant did not attend the required interview and verifications were not received.

(6) On December 10, 2008, a DHS-254, Notice of Missed Appointment, was mailed to claimant informing her that she had missed the required interview and that it was her responsibility to reschedule the interview before December 31, 2008 or her redetermination would be denied.

(7) An interview was not rescheduled and verifications were not returned.

(8) The case closed on December 31, 2008.

(9) Claimant stated that she was homeless and she was told to pick up her mail from the department which would be left at the front desk for her to pick up.

(10) Claimant did not regularly pick up her mail.

(11) The first Verification Checklist was left at the front desk for her to pick up.

(12) A second Verification Checklist was mailed to [REDACTED], a mailing address that she provided at a later date.

- . for excluded income and assets unless needed to establish the exclusion. PAM, Item 130, p. 1.

Send a negative action notice when:

- . the time period given has elapsed and the client has not made a reasonable effort to provide it. PAM, Item 130, p. 4.

Only adequate notice is required for an application denial. Timely notice is required to reduce or terminate benefits.

Exception: At redetermination, FAP clients have until the last day of the redetermination month or 10 days, whichever is later, to provide verification. See PAM 210. PAM, Item 130, p. 4.

TMAP

See PEM 647 regarding timeliness standards for TMA-Plus determinations. PAM, Item 130, p. 5.

In the instant case, claimant stated in her Hearing Request that she is homeless and cannot always get to her mail and when she did get her mail she returned all requested paperwork and a phone number for contact.

This Administrative Law Judge finds that claimant gave the address that mail was supposed to be sent to her at. In addition, the department also left mail for her at the front desk which she did not pick up. Claimant was aware of the arrangement. This Administrative Law Judge finds that claimant did not provide verification information in a timely manner. The department acted in compliance with department policy.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that claimant failed to provide verification information in a timely manner. The department has established by the necessary competent, material and substantial evidence on the record that it was acting in compliance with department policy when it allowed claimant's Food Assistance Program and Medical Assistance (Adult Medical Program) case to close based upon the fact that claimant did not provide verification information. Claimant should reapply for benefits as soon as possible.

Accordingly, the department's decision is AFFIRMED.
