- (1) Claimant was an ongoing recipient of Medical Assistance.
- (2) On January 8, 2009 notice of case action was sent to claimant informing him that MA coverage would be cancelled for household members [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] effective January 21, 2009 because of an increase in income.

- (3) The Department determined that claimant had excess income that resulted in Medicaid deductible of $1451 per month.
- (4) Claimant requested a hearing on January 20, 2009 contesting the closure of Medicaid for [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and [REDACTED].
- (5) The claimant's child and household member [REDACTED] received coverage under the MiChild program in April 2009 and the claimant abandoned the appeal with regard to [REDACTED] Medicaid benefit.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

The Medical Assistance program was designed to assist needy persons with medical expenses. The State of Michigan has set guidelines for income, which determines if a MA group falls within the needy classification. Under PEM Items 544 and 545, an eligible Medical Assistance group (Group II MA) has income the same as or less than the "protected income level" plus medical insurance premiums as set forth in the policy contained in the program reference table. An individual or MA group whose income is in excess of the monthly protected income level is ineligible to receive MA. However, a MA group may become eligible for assistance under the deductible program. A deductible is a process, which allows a client with excess income to be eligible for MA, if sufficient allowable medical expenses are incurred. Each calendar month is a separate deductible period. The fiscal group's monthly excess income is called the deductible amount. Meeting a deductible means reporting and verifying allowable medical expenses that equal or exceed the deductible amount for the calendar month. The MA group must report expenses by the last day of the third month following the month it wants medical coverage. (PEM 545; 42 CFR 435.831.)

In the present case, Claimant is contesting the deductible amount for her MA benefits. Claimant's employment income is $2594, after subtracting $90 for work expense and $511 for Adult's other share, his net income is $1992. Claimant's net income $1992 exceeds the monthly protected income level of $541 by $1451 per month. Claimant is consequently ineligible to receive Medical assistance. However under the deductible program, if the Claimant incurs medical expenses in excess of $1451 during the month she may then be eligible for Medical Assistance. This ALJ finds that the department has acted in accordance with department policy and law in denying ongoing Medical assistance and determining his deductible amount.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law decides that the department was correct in the determination of MA benefits, and it is ORDERED that the department's decision in this regard be and is hereby AFFIRMED.
