ISSUE

Is claimant receiving the correct monthly Food Assistance Program (FAP) allotment?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Claimant was a recipient FAP benefits in a household of one person.
2. In March 2009 Claimant began receiving SSI benefits. (Exhibit 4)
3. The Department recalculated Claimant's budget resulting in a decreased monthly FAP benefit grant of $58. (Exhibit 1)
4. On May 19, 2009 Claimant requested a hearing contesting the decrease in FAP benefits.

5. At the hearing the department agreed to accept documentation of rent and utility expenses and redo the budget replacing any lost benefits if appropriate.
6. As a result of this agreement claimant, indicated that he no longer wished to proceed with the hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program, formerly known as the Food Stamp (“FS”) program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (“CFR”). The Department of Human Services (“DHS”), formally known as the Family Independence Agency, administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Departmental policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (“PAM”), the Program Eligibility Manual (“PEM”), and the Program Reference Manual (“PRM”).

Under Program Administrative Manual Item 600, clients have the right to contest any agency decision affecting eligibility or benefit levels whenever they believe the decision is illegal. The agency provides an Administrative Hearing to review the decision and determine if it is appropriate. Agency policy includes procedures to meet the minimal requirements for a fair hearing. Efforts to clarify and resolve the client’s concerns start when the agency receives a hearing request and continues through the day of the hearing.

In the present case claimant is contesting the reduction of his FAP benefits. At the hearing the department agreed to accept documentation of rent and utility expenses and redo the budget replacing any lost benefits if appropriate. As a result of this agreement, claimant indicated he no longer wished to proceed with the hearing. Since the claimant and the department have come to an agreement it is unnecessary for this Administrative Law Judge to make a decision regarding the facts and issues in this case.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the department and claimant have come to a settlement regarding claimant's request for a hearing. Therefore it is ORDERED that the department accept documentation of rent and utility expenses and redo the budget replacing any lost benefits if appropriate, in accordance with this settlement agreement.
