ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Kevin Scully

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge by authority of MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon a request from the Department of Human Services (Department) to schedule a hearing for an alleged intentional program (IPV). Respondent did not appear at the hearing, which was held on Wednesday, April 7, 2010, in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), MAC R 400.3130(5), or MAC R 400.3187(5).

ISSUE

Did the Respondent commit a Food Assistance Program (FAP) intentional program violation (IPV)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the clear and convincing evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

(1) The Respondent received FAP benefits from March 1, 2007, through November 30, 2007. Department Exhibit 45.

(2) Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report all household employment and income to the Department and had no apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. Department Exhibit 27.

(3) Respondent was employed and received earnings during the period of January 6, 2007, through June 25, 2007. Department Exhibit 29.

(4) Respondent was employed and received earnings during the period of July 24, 2007, through August 14, 2007. Department Exhibit 31.

(5) Respondent was employed and received earnings during the period of August 31, 2007, through September 8, 2007. Department Exhibit 34.

(6) Respondent was employed and received earnings during the period of September 10, 2007, through November 16, 2007. Department Exhibit 36.

(7) Respondent did not fully report all employment and income to the Department.

(8) Respondent failed to report income and earnings for the purposes of receiving benefits that respondent was not entitled to receive.

(9) As a result, Respondent received overissuances in the amount of [REDACTED] under the FAP program. Department Exhibit 45.

(10) This was Respondent's second intentional program violation.

(11) A notice of the disqualification hearing was mailed to the Respondent's at the last known address, and it was returned by the U.S. Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or Department), administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Reference Table Manual (RFT), and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

When a customer client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. BAM 700. A suspected intentional program violation means an overissuance where:

- the client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- the client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- the client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities.

The Department suspects an intentional program violation when the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing, or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. There must be clear and convincing evidence that the client acted intentionally for this purpose. BAM 720.

The Department's Office of Inspector General processes intentional program hearings for overissuances referred to them for investigation. The Office of Inspector General represents the Department during the hearing process. The Office of Inspector General requests intentional program hearings for cases when:

- benefit overissuances are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- prosecution of welfare fraud is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - the total overissuance amount is $1000 or more, or
  - the total overissuance amount is less than $1000, and
    - the group has a previous intentional program violation, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance,
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an intentional program violation disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them. Other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720.

Clients that commit an intentional program violation are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720.

This is the Respondent's second violation.

In this case, the Respondent signed an application for FAP benefits on January 9, 2007, and intentionally withheld information about income earned from three different employers from January 6, 2007, through September 8, 2007. Respondent's signature on the FAP application certifies that she was aware that fraudulent participation in FAP could result in criminal or civil or administrative claims. Because of Respondent's failure to report income, she received an overissuance and the Department is entitled to recoup [REDACTED].

The Department properly requested that the Respondent be disqualified from participation in the FAP program for two years.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the clear and convincing evidence on the whole record, decides the following:

1. The Respondent committed a second intentional program violation of FAP.
2. The Department is entitled to recoup a FAP overissuance of [REDACTED].
3. The Respondent is ordered to reimburse the Department for the overissuance.
4. The Respondent is disqualified from participation in FAP for two years.
