Issue No: 3008

Load No: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date:

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Gary F. Heisler

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9; and MCL 400.37 upon claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a hearing was held on July 30, 2009. Claimant appeared and testified.

ISSUE

Did the Department of Human Services properly close Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) case for failure to provide required information?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) Claimant was an ongoing recipient of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits. Claimant's case was due for review by May 31, 2009.
- (2) On April 1, 2009, Claimant was sent a review packet which included a request for income for the last 30 days.

(3) On May 31, 2009, the only income information Claimant had provided was from 2007. Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) case was closed.

(4) On June 8, 2009, Claimant submitted a request for hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program) is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

The Department has a legal requirement to determine Claimant's eligibility for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits based on his income and expenses as defined in Federal Law and Department policy. Department policy clearly requires verification of income and expenses as part of determining eligibility for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

During the hearing Claimant testified that he has ownership in three separate businesses. Claimant testified that he will not provide information about one of the businesses because his partners do not want the information disclosed. Claimant argued that the two pages he submitted should be sufficient to show his income and expenses.

Review of the two pages shows they do not contain any understandable information about Claimant's income for the last 30 days. The two pages have no value as a disclosure of Claimant's income.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides the Department of Human Services properly closed Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) case for failure to provide required information.

It is ORDERED that the actions of the Department of Human Services, in this matter, are UPHELD.
