HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a hearing was held on October 1, 2009. Claimant appeared and testified. [REDACTED], friend, [REDACTED], pastor, and [REDACTED], mental health advocate, were also present and testified on claimant's behalf. Amy Connell, FIM, appeared on behalf of the department.

ISSUE

Did the Department properly determine ongoing eligibility for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Claimant was an ongoing recipient of FAP benefits in a household of two persons, claimant and her son.
2. Claimant received monthly income from SSI benefits.

3. Claimant's son was entitled to monthly RSDI benefit income, however the payments were made to [REDACTED], who does not reside in claimant's household and did not give any of the money to claimant or her son.

4. Claimant had obligations for shelter, heat, and utilities.

5. Claimant's rent increased in June 2009. (Claimant Exhibit 1)

6. The department re-calculated the FAP budget, including the RSDI income, and determined that claimant is entitled to a monthly FAP allotment of $16, effective July 2009.

(Exhibits, pgs. 2-6)

7. Claimant filed a hearing request on July 13, 2009, contesting the FAP determination.

8. Claimant's son has since moved out of the household.

9. At the hearing, the Department agreed to obtain additional verifications and re-determine claimant's eligibility retroactive to July 2009.

10. As a result of this agreement, claimant indicated that she no longer wished to proceed with the hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program, formerly known as the Food Stamp ("FS") program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations ("CFR"). The Department of Human Services ("DHS"), formally known as the Family Independence Agency, administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Departmental policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual ("PAM"), the Program Eligibility Manual ("PEM"), and the Program Reference Manual ("PRM").

Under Program Administrative Manual Item 600, clients have the right to contest any agency decision affecting eligibility or benefit levels whenever they believe the decision is illegal. The agency provides an Administrative Hearing to review the decision and determine if it is appropriate. Agency policy includes procedures to meet the minimal requirements for a fair hearing. Efforts to clarify and resolve the client's concerns start when the agency receives a hearing request and continues through the day of the hearing.

In the present case, claimant filed a hearing request contesting the department's FAP determination. At the hearing, the department agreed to obtain additional verifications and re-determine claimant's eligibility retroactive to July 2009. As a result of this agreement, claimant indicated she no longer wished to proceed with the hearing. Since the claimant and the department have come to an agreement, it is unnecessary for this Administrative Law Judge to make a decision regarding the facts and issues in this case.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the department and claimant have come to a settlement regarding claimant's request for a hearing.

Therefore it is ORDERED that the department obtain additional verifications and re-determine claimant's eligibility retroactive to July 2009, awarding benefits to claimant, if appropriate, in accordance with this settlement agreement.
