HEARING DECISION

After due notice, a hearing was conducted in Oakland County, Michigan on April 15, 2009. The Claimant was present and testified and was represented by [REDACTED]

ISSUE

Whether the Department properly calculated Claimant's FAP benefits to include rental obligation?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Claimant was a FAP recipient.
2. The Department conducted a FAP redetermination in November of 2008.

3. At the hearing, the Department agreed to reconsider Claimant's FAP review and recalculate FAP benefits to include a shelter obligation.
4. As a result of this agreement, Claimant indicated that he no longer wished to proceed with a hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program) is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

Under Program Administrative Manual Item 600, clients have the right to contest any agency decision affecting eligibility or benefit levels whenever they believe the decision is illegal. The agency provides an Administrative Hearing to review the decision and determine if it is appropriate. Agency policy includes procedures to meet the minimal requirements for a fair hearing. Efforts to clarify and resolve the client's concerns start when the agency receives a hearing request and continues through the day of the hearing.

In the present case, the department has agreed to reconsider Claimant's FAP review and recalculate FAP benefits including Claimant's rental obligation. As a result of this agreement, Claimant indicated he no longer wished to proceed with the hearing. Since the Claimant and the Department have come to an agreement, it is unnecessary for this Administrative Law Judge to make a decision regarding the facts and issues in this case.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that the Department and Claimant have come to a settlement regarding claimant's request for a hearing. Therefore it is ORDERED that the department review and recalculate Claimant's FAP benefits from November 2008 through the present, including Claimant's shelter obligation, in accordance with this settlement agreement.

Furthermore, the Department shall supplement the Claimant for any lost benefits he was otherwise entitled to receive as a result of his shelter obligation not being included in FAP calculation.
