ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE
DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF: [REDACTED],
Claimant

Reg. No: 200926200
Issue No: 1038
Case No: [REDACTED]
Load No: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date:
July 22, 2009
Berrien County DHS

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Robert J. Chavez

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a hearing was held on July 22, 2009.

ISSUE

Did the Department of Human Services (DHS) correctly impose a negative case action and three month sanction upon the claimant for noncompliance with work-related activities?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) Claimant applied for FIP assistance on April 13, 2009 in Berrien County.
- (2) On May 22, 2009, claimant was sent a notice to attend JET on June 1, 2009.
- (3) Claimant did not receive this notice.
- (4) Claimant did not attend JET on June 1, 2009.

- (5) Claimant's application was subsequently denied for failing to attend JET.
- (6) At the time of the application denial, claimant's application was outside of the standards of promptness for processing.
- (7) On June 5, 2009, claimant requested a hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 8 USC 601, et seq. The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the FIP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3101-3131. The FIP program replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

All Family Independence Program (FIP) and Refugee Assistance Program (RAP) eligible adults and 16- and 17-year-olds not in high school full-time must be referred to the Jobs, Education and Training (JET) Program or other employment service provider, unless deferred or engaged in activities that meet participation requirements. Clients who have not been granted a deferral must participate in employment and/or self-sufficiency related activities to increase their employability and to find employment. BEM 230A, p. 1. A cash recipient who refuses, without good cause, to participate in assigned employment and/or self-sufficiency-related activities is subject to penalties. BEM 230A, p. 1. This is commonly called "non-compliance". BEM 233A defines non-compliance as failing or refusing to, without good cause:

"...Appear and participate with the Jobs, Education and Training (JET) Program or other employment service provider..." PEM 233A pg. 1.

However, non-compliance can be overcome if the client has “good cause”. Good cause is a valid reason for non-participation with employment and/or self-sufficiency-related activities that are based on factors that are beyond the control of the noncompliant person. BEM 233A. A claim of good cause must be verified and documented.

The penalty for noncompliance is FIP closure. BEM 233A.

Furthermore, JET participants can not be terminated from a JET program without first scheduling a “triage” meeting with the client to jointly discuss noncompliance and good cause. BEM 233A. At these triage meetings, good cause is determined based on the best information available during the triage and prior to the negative action date. Good cause may be verified by information already on file with DHS or MWA. BEM 233A. If the client establishes good cause within the negative action period, penalties are not imposed. The client is sent back to JET, if applicable, after resolving transportation, CDC, or other factors which may have contributed to the good cause. BEM 233A.

The undersigned will first note that the claimant’s application was processed outside the 45 day time limit for processing FIP applications. The Department testified that claimant was not entitled to a triage or good cause determination in the matter because her application was still pending.

There are arguments for and against whether a pending application is entitled to a good cause determination; however, the undersigned will decline to examine them in this decision. What is important is, had the Department processed claimant’s application in a timely manner, claimant would have been entitled to a triage.

Claimant was scheduled for a JET class on June 1, 2009. Claimant’s application should have been processed by May 28, 2009, which was 45 days after the April 13, 2009 application date. Claimant's application should not have been pending on that date, and had the application not been pended, claimant would have been entitled to a triage for not participating with JET on June 1. As claimant's ineligibility for triage was the direct result of a mistake by the Department, the undersigned will not find that the Department was correct when claimant was denied the triage.

However, with regard to the claimant's alleged incident of noncompliance, the undersigned is having difficulty determining whether the claimant was ever non-participatory to begin with, and therefore even required a triage.

Claimant testified at hearing that she never received a DHS-4785, JET Appointment Notice. The Administrative Law Judge, after considering claimant's recollection of dates and times, the Department's testimony that claimant had questioned them as to why she had not received a notice, and the Department's history of occasionally failing to send paperwork, the undersigned finds claimant's testimony credible. As such, the undersigned holds that claimant never received the DHS-4785 and could never have attended the JET program. Therefore, claimant did not refuse to participate, and the Department was in error when it held that claimant had done so.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the claimant was in compliance with the JET program during the month of June, 2009.

Accordingly, the Department's decision in the above stated matter is, hereby,
REVERSED.

The Department is ORDERED to reprocess claimant's FIP application of April 13, 2009.
