HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon the Claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on July 19, 2010. The Claimant appeared and testified. [REDACTED], FIM appeared on behalf of the Department.

ISSUE

Was the Department correct in denying Claimant's Child Day Care application for failing to return verifications?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) Claimant applied for CDC benefits on May 8, 2009.
- (2) Claimant was sent a verification checklist on May 8, 2009 with a May 18, 2009 due date.
- (3) Claimant received the request for verifications on May 16, 2009.
- (4) Claimant submitted verifications on May 20, 2009.
- (5) Claimant's CDC application was denied on May 20, 2009 for failure to provide verifications.
- (6) Claimant requested hearing on June 1, 2009 contesting the denial of CDC benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Child Development and Care program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and MAC R 400.5001-5015. Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility to provide verification. BAM 130, p. 1. The questionable information might be from the client or a third party. Id. The Department can use documents, collateral contacts or home calls to verify information. Id. The client should be allowed 10 calendar days to provide the verification. If the client cannot provide the verification despite a reasonable effort, the time limit to provide should be extended at least once. BAM 130, p.4; BEM 702. If the client refuses to provide the information or has not made a reasonable effort within the specified time period, then policy directs that a negative action be issued. BAM 130, p. 4. Before making an eligibility determination, however, the department must give the client a reasonable opportunity to resolve any discrepancy between his statements and information from another source. BAM 130, p. 6. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level. BAM 130

In the present case, Claimant credibly testified that she did not receive the request for verifications until May 16, 2009 and that she provided the requested verifications on May 20, 2009. The Department acknowledged receiving the verifications on May 20, 2009. This Administrative Law Judge finds that Claimant was cooperative in providing requested verifications in a timely manner and therefore denial of Claimant's CDC application was improper and incorrect.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law decides that the Department was incorrect in the denial of Claimant's CDC application, and it is ORDERED that the Department's decision is hereby REVERSED. Claimant's application shall be reinstated and reprocessed going back to the date of application May 8, 2009. Any missed benefits shall be paid to Claimant in the form of a supplement.
