After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on August 12, 2009 and claimant was not represented. [REDACTED], claimant's mother, appeared and testified. ISSUE

Whether the Department properly closed claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits case for non-compliance with Work First/JET?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On May 18, 2009 claimant applied for FIP benefits.
2. Claimant began participating in Work First June 8, 2009. Department Exhibit 2.
3. Claimant was attending classes at [REDACTED] which reduced the hours she participated in the Work First/JET program.

4. Claimant provided the Work First/JET program with a copy of her class schedule on June 25, 2009.
5. The department denied the FIP application on June 30, 2009 for noncompliance with the Work First/JET program. Department Exhibit 1.
6. Claimant requested a hearing contesting the denial on July 1, 2009.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 8 USC 601, et seq. The Department of Human services (DHS or Department) administers the FIP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3101-3131. The FIP program replaced the Aid to Dependant Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference manual (PRM).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) provides temporary cash assistance to support a family's movement to self-sufficiency. The recipients of FIP engage in employment and self-sufficiency-related activities so they can become self-supporting. Federal and State laws require each work eligible individual (WEI) in the FIP group to participate in the Jobs, Education and Training (JET) Program or other employment-related activities unless temporarily deferred or engaged in activities that meet participation requirements. These clients must participate in employment and/or self-sufficiency related activities to increase their employability and obtain stable employment. PEM 230A.

JET is a program administered by the Michigan Department of Labor and Economic Growth (DLEG) through the Michigan Works Agencies (MWAs). The JET program serves employers and job seekers for employers to have skilled workers and job seekers to obtain jobs that provide economic self-sufficiency. PEM 230 A. A mandatory participant in the JET program who fails without good cause to participate in employment activity must be penalized. PEM 233(a). The penalty for the first occurrence of noncompliance in the JET program is a closure for a minimum of three calendar months under the FIP program. PEM 233(a). Good cause is a valid reason for noncompliance with employment related activities. A claim of good cause must be verified and documented for applicants, members, and recipients. PEM Manual Item 230(a), PEM Manual Item 230(b); 7 CFR Parts 272 and 273.

In the present case, claimant was a FIP applicant who was participating in the Work First/JET program while her application was being processed. Claimant testified she was unable to participate the full hours of the Work First/JET program because she was taking classes at [REDACTED]. Claimant testified she submitted her class schedule to the Work First/JET program on June 25, 2009. The Work First/JET program notes indicates claimant's class schedule was requested on June 24 and claimant stated she would bring it in on June 25, 2009. Department Exhibit 2. However, a subsequent case note indicates claimant's case was returned on June 24, 2009. Department Exhibit 2.

Based upon the foregoing facts and relevant law, it is found that the denial of claimants FIP benefits for noncompliance with Work First/JET was in error. Claimant's case was returned by the Work First/JET program for noncompliance prior to the date claimant arranged to submit her class schedule to the Work First/JET program.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that claimant's case was returned for noncompliance prior to the date claimant arranged to submit her class schedule to the Work First/JET program.

Accordingly, the department's FIP determination is REVERSED. Therefore, it is ORDERED that the department reinstate claimant's May 18, 2009 FIP application refer claimant back to the Work First/JET program in accordance with this Decision.
