DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF: [REDACTED]
Respondent

Reg. No: 2009-31056
Issue No: 3055
Case No: [REDACTED]
Load No: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date:
September 30, 2009
Wayne County DHS

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Gary F. Heisler

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37, 7 CFR 273.16, MAC R 400.3130, and MAC R 400.3178 upon the Department of Human Services (department) request for a disqualification hearing. After due notice, a hearing was held on September 30, 2009. Respondent did not appear.

ISSUE

Whether respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) and whether respondent received an overissuance of benefits that the department is entitled to recoup?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the clear and convincing evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) On July 20, 2005, Respondent submitted an application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits. Respondent signed the application acknowledging receipt and understanding of the requirements to receive benefits. Those requirements include reporting changes in income within 10 days. Respondent was an ongoing recipient of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

- (2) On January 30, 2006, Respondent began employment at [REDACTED]. Respondent did not report the income to the Department.
- (3) On September 6, 2006, Respondent submitted an application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits. Respondent marked the application showing she began employment at [REDACTED] on June 5, 2006. Respondent also marked the application to show the employment would not continue and her last pay day would be September 22, 2006.
- (4) On August 22, 2007, the Department received verification that Respondent began employment at [REDACTED] on 1/30/06 and was still employed there.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program) is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

In this case, the department has requested a disqualification hearing to establish an overissuance of benefits as a result of an IPV and the department has asked that respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits. The department's manuals provide the following relevant policy statements and instructions for department caseworkers:

PAM 720 INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

DEPARTMENT POLICY

All Programs

Recoupment policies and procedures vary by program and overissuance (OI) type. This item explains Intentional Program Violation (IPV) processing and establishment. PAM 700 explains OI discovery, OI types and standards of promptness. PAM 705 explains agency error and PAM 715 explains client error.

DEFINITIONS

All Programs

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities.

IPV is suspected when there is clear and convincing evidence that the client or CDC provider has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility.

FAP Only

IPV is suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits.

IPV

FIP, SDA and FAP

The client/authorized representative (AR) is determined to have committed an IPV by:

- A court decision.
- An administrative hearing decision.
- The client signing a DHS-826, Request for Waiver of Disqualification Hearing or DHS-830, Disqualification Consent Agreement or other recoupment and disqualification agreement forms.

Clear and convincing evidence is evidence that “produce[s] in the mind of the trier of fact a firm belief or conviction as to the truth of the allegations sought to be established, evidence so clear, direct, and weighty and convincing as to enable [the fact finder] to come to a clear conviction, without hesitancy, of the truth of the precise facts in issue.” In re Martin, 450 Mich 204, 227; 538 NW2d 399 (1995), quoting In re Jobes, 108 NJ 394, 407-408; 529 A2d 434 (1987).

In this case, Respondent intentionally failed to report income to the Department. Claimant also submitted a fraudulent application for benefits on September 6, 2006.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the clear and convincing evidence, decides the following:

██████████ committed an intentional program violation by intentionally failing to report income to the Department of Human Services and by submitting a falsified application to the Department.

██████████ intentional program violation resulted in an over-issuance of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits between May 1, 2006 and August 31, 2006 in the amount of $1,102. The Department of Human Services is entitled to recoup the $1,102 over-issuance.
