

(2) The specialist sent claimant a notice on January 4, 2008 stating that she had not received verifications and placed claimant's MA-P and FAP case in negative action.

(3) On January 19, 2008, the specialist closed claimant's case stating that she did not receive the requested verifications.

(4) The department caseworker, on the record conceded that claimant provided the verification information in a timely manner.

(5) The original caseworker did not testify at the hearing.

(6) The claimant did not receive Medical Assistance benefits from February through September 2008 and did not receive Food Assistance Program benefits from February to June 2008.

(7) On March 19, 2008, claimant filed a request for a hearing to contest the department's negative action.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program) is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

In the instant case, the department conceded on the record that claimant provided the verification information in a timely matter. Therefore, the department's case must be reversed.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the department has conceded on the record that it did not appropriately act in compliance with department policy when it cancelled claimant's Medical Assistance and Food Assistance Program benefits.

Accordingly, the department's decision is REVERSED. The department is ORDERED to reinstate claimant's Medical Assistance and Food Assistance Program benefit application to the January 19, 2008 closure date. The department shall re-evaluate claimant's eligibility for both programs and if claimant is otherwise eligible shall pay to claimant any Food Assistance Program benefits to which she is eligible and shall open an ongoing Medical Assistance benefit case for the February to September 2008 months.
