DEBT COLLECTION HEARING ORDER OF DISMISSAL

The Department of Human Services ("Department") brought the instant action in order to collect a debt arising out of an overissuance of Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits. A hearing in this matter was scheduled to be held on August 25, 2011 at 9:00 a.m. Prior to going on the record, the Department representative indicated that she would like to withdraw this hearing request because Respondent is subject to administrative recoupment as she is an adult member of the original overissuance group and is currently active for the program in which the overissuance occurred.

For this reason, the above-captioned matter is DISMISSED without prejudice.

It is SO ORDERED.
