HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge by authority of MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37. Claimant's request for a hearing was received on November 19, 2009. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on Tuesday, April 20, 2010.

ISSUE

Whether the Department of Human Services (Department) properly terminated the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) The Claimant was receiving FAP benefits before September 1, 2009. Department Exhibit 2.
- (2) The Department sent the Claimant a Redetermination form on July 17, 2009, with a due date of August 4, 2009. Department Exhibit 6.

(3) The Department sent the Claimant notice that his FAP benefits had been terminated on September 18, 2009. Department Exhibit 2.

(4) The Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing on November 19, 2009, protesting the termination of his FAP benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or Department), administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Reference Table Manual (RFT), and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes the completion of necessary forms. BAM 105, p. 5. Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. BAM 130, p. 1. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. BAM 130, p. 1. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. BAM 130, p. 1. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. BAM 130, p. 2. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. BAM 130, p. 2.

Clients are allowed 10 calendar days (or other time limited specified in policy) to provide the verifications requested by the Department. BAM 130, p. 4. If the client cannot provide the verification despite a reasonable effort, the time limit should be extended no more than once. BAM 130, p. 4. A negative action notice should be sent when the client indicates a refusal to provide the verification or the time period provided has lapsed and the client had not made a reasonable effort to provide it. BAM 130, p. 4.

The Department sent the Claimant notice that it was reviewing his FAP benefits on July 17, 2009. The Claimant had a deadline of August 4, 2009, to return the redetermination form and verification documents to the Department. The Claimant failed to return the necessary verification documents to the Department.

I find that the Department properly terminated the Claimant's FAP benefits due to his failure to cooperate with the Department's request for verification documents.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the Department acted in accordance with policy in terminating the Claimant's FAP benefits for failure to provide requested verification documents.

The Department's FAP eligibility determination is AFFIRMED, it is SO ORDERED.
