ISSUE

Was the Department correct in closing Claimant's Food Assistance and Child Day Care benefits for failing to return employment verifications?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) Claimant was an on-going recipient of FAP and CDC benefits.
- (2) Claimant was sent a verification of employment on October 28, 2009.

- (3) A verification checklist with a verification of employment was sent to Claimant on December 3, 2009 requesting the form be submitted by December 14, 2009.
- (4) Claimant's FAP and CDC benefits were closed on January 25, 2010 for failure to provide verifications.
- (5) Claimant requested hearing on February 5, 2010 contesting the closure of FAP and CDC benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program, formerly known as the Food Stamp ("FS") program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations ("CFR"). The Department of Human Services ("DHS"), formally known as the Family Independence Agency, administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Departmental policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual ("BAM"), the Bridges Eligibility Manual ("BEM"), and the Program Reference Manual ("PRM").

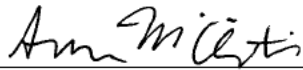

The Child Development and Care program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and MAC R 400.5001-5015. Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility to provide verification. BAM 130, p. 1. The questionable information might be from the client or a third party. Id. The Department can use documents, collateral contacts or home calls to verify information. Id. The client should be allowed 10 calendar days to provide the verification. If the client cannot provide the verification despite a reasonable effort, the time limit to provide should be extended at least once. BAM 130, p.4; BEM 702. If the client refuses to provide the information or has not made a reasonable effort within the specified time period, then policy directs that a negative action be issued. BAM 130, p. 4. Before making an eligibility determination, however, the department must give the client a reasonable opportunity to resolve any discrepancy between his statements and information from another source. BAM 130, p. 6. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level. BAM 130

In the present case, Claimant informed the Department that her employment as a receptionist at a salon was stopping to pursue educational opportunities. Claimant changed her mind regarding pursuing educational opportunities and returned to her previous employment. The Department sent employment verifications to the Claimant on October 28, 2009 and again on December 3, 2009. These verifications were never returned and Claimant could not produce the verification at hearing. Claimant, at hearing, questioned why verifications were needed if she was returning to previous employment. Department policy requires that verifications of employment be provided when changes are reported. BAM 130 This Administrative Law Judge finds that Claimant was not cooperative in providing requested employment verifications and therefore closure of Claimant's CDC and FAP benefits was proper and correct.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law decides that the Department was correct in the closure of Claimant's FAP and CDC benefits, and it is ORDERED that the Department's decision is hereby AFFIRMED.
