ISSUE

Did the Department of Human Services over-issue $ of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits to Claimant and is the Department of Human Services required to recoup the over-issuance?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) Claimant was an ongoing recipient of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.
- (2) On August 14, 2009, the DHS case worker incorrectly removed Unemployment

Compensation Benefits (UCB) from Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) financial eligibility budget.

- (3) On September 30, 2009, Claimant informed her case worker that the Unemployment Compensation Benefits (UCB) had continued.
- (4) On November 21, 2009, Claimant's Unemployment Compensation Benefits (UCB) were included back into her Food Assistance Program (FAP) financial eligibility budget. The BRIDGEs computer program automatically generated an over-issuance notice for the months of
- (5) On December 1, 2009, Claimant submitted a request for hearing about the over-issuance.
- (6) On January 15, 2010, a prehearing conference was held and a Recoupment Specialist (RS) was going to review the case and issue a new notice if there was an over-issuance.
 - (7) Later on January 15, 2010, a new notice of over-issuance was sent to Claimant.
- (8) On March 3, 2010, Claimant submitted a request for hearing about the January 15, 2010 notice.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program) is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Bridges

Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

In this case the Department determined that Claimant was over-issued $ of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits during October and due to an agency error. During the hearing Claimant verified the accuracy of the dollar values used in the corrected Food Assistance Program (FAP) budgets. The corrected Food Assistance Program (FAP) budgets were checked by this Administrative Law Judge and are correct. Claimant was over-issued $ of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits during and and .

The over-issuance is classified as an agency error because the Department had accurate information about Claimant's Unemployment Compensation Benefits (UCB) continuing but mistakenly removed them from her financial eligibility budget. Department policy provides the following guidance for case workers. The Department's policies are available on the internet through the Department's website.

BENEFIT OVERISSUANCES

DEPARTMENT POLICY

All Programs

When a client group receives m ore benefits than they are entitled to receive, DHS must attempt to recoup the overissuance (OI). This item explains OI types and standards of promptness (SOP).

Note: A client or CD C provider m ay voluntarily repay any program benefits even when there is no overiss uance. Refer these situations to the local office fiscal unit.

OVERISSUANCE TYPES

All Programs

The three different OI types are described below. Further detail is included in BAM 705, 715 and 720.

Agency Error

All Programs

An agency error OI is caused by incorrect action (in cluding delayed or no action) by DHS or DIT staff or department ent processes. Some examples are:

- Available infor mation was not used or was used incorrectly.
- Policy was misapplied.
- Action by local or central office staff was delayed.
- Computer or machine errors occurred.
- Information was not shared between department divisions (services staff, Work First! agencies, etc.).
- Data exchange reports were not acted upon timely (wage match, new hires, BENDEX, etc.).

If unable to identify the type of OI, record it as an agency error.

FIP, SDA, CDC and FAP

Agency error OI's are not pursued if the estim ated OI am ount is less than $125 per program.

Exception: There is no threshold lim it on CDC system errors. RRS in central office will recoup these types of overissuances.

Example: If payroll checks or EFTs for the provider and/or client were issued twice, the full amount would be recouped by RRS.

FIP, SDA and FAP Only

The agency error threshold was lowered to $125 from $500 with a retroactive effective date of August 1, 2008.

Note: The past agency error threshold was lowered to $500 from $1,000 effective April 1, 2005 and re troactive back to September 1, 2003. If the agency error in cludes September 2003, the $500 threshold applies. If all months of the error are prior to September 2003, the $1,000 threshold applies. (BAM 700)

The policy cited above dictates that the recoupment threshold for the over-issuance to Claimant is $ Because the over-issuance to Claimant was in the amount of $ the Department must attempt to recoup the over-issuance.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides the Department of Human Services over-issue $ of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits to Claimant and the Department of Human Services is required to recoup the over-issuance.

It is ORDERED that the actions of the Department of Human Services, in this matter, are UPHELD.
