CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program, formerly known as the Food Stamp ("FS") program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations ("CFR"). The Department of Human Services ("DHS"), formerly known as the Family Independence Agency, administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Departmental policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual ("BAM"), the Bridges Eligibility Manual ("BEM"), and the Program Reference Manual ("PRM").

The Family Independence program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 8 USC 601, et seq. The Department of Human services (DHS or Department) administers the FIP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3101-3131. The FIP program replaced the Aid to Dependant Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference manual (PRM).

Under Bridges Administrative Manual Item 600, clients have the right to contest any agency decision affecting eligibility or benefit levels whenever they believe the decision is illegal. The agency provides an Administrative Hearing to review the decision and determine if it is appropriate. Agency policy includes procedures to meet the minimal requirements for a fair hearing. Efforts to clarify and resolve the client's concerns start when the agency receives a hearing request and continues through the day of the hearing.

In the present case, the parties reached an agreement with regard to Food Assistance. Claimant is entitled to a $211 supplement for December 2009, January 2010, and February 2010.

The parties agreed that FIP benefits were applied for and not processed, but could not agree when they were applied for. Claimant asserted that she requested FIP benefits in the November 3, 2009 application. The application presented at hearing supports this position.

The Department asserted that Claimant did not request FIP benefits until a face to face interview on January 22, 2010. No evidence presented supports this contention. The worker's note from January 22, 2010 makes no reference to [REDACTED]. The

201031762/AM

Department shall reinstate and reprocess the FIP application back to November 3, 2009.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that the Department shall pay Claimant a supplement of $211 for December 2009, January 2010 and February 2010. It is further ordered that the Department reinstate and reprocess Claimant's November 3, 2009 application for FIP benefits.
