ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Kevin Scully

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge by authority of MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37. Claimant's request for a hearing was received on April 23, 2010. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on Thursday, June 17, 2010.

ISSUE

Whether the Department of Human Services (Department) properly determined the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP), Family Independence Program (FIP), and Medical Assistance (MA) eligibility?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) The Claimant was receiving FAP, FIP, and MA benefits.
- (2) The Department sent the Claimant a redetermination form on February 9, 2010.

(3) On March 19, 2010, the Department terminated the Claimant's FAP, FIP, and MA benefits for failure to cooperate in the redetermination process.

(4) The Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing on April 23, 2010, protesting termination of her FAP, FIP, and MA benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or Department), administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Reference Table Manual (RFT), and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 8 USC 601, et seq. The Department of Human Services (DHS or Department) administers the FIP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3101-3131. The FIP program replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Reference Table Manual (RFT), and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or Department) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Reference Table Manual (RFT), and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes the completion of necessary forms. BAM 105, p. 5. Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. BAM 130, p. 1. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. BAM 130, p. 1. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. BAM 130, p. 1. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. BAM 130, p. 2. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. BAM 130.

Clients are allowed ten calendar days to provide the verifications requested by the Department. BAM 130, p. 4. The Department should send a negative action notice when the client indicates a refusal to provide the verification, or the time period provided has lapsed and the client has not made a reasonable effort to provide it. BAM 130, p. 4. The Department should extend the time limit no more than once if the client cannot provide the verification despite a reasonable effort. BAM 130, p. 4.

The Department sent the Claimant a redetermination form with a due date of March 4, 2010. This form gave the Claimant notice that if she did not return it by the due date the Department could cancel her benefits. The Claimant did not return the redetermination form, or the verification documents the Department had requested to determine her eligibility to continue to receive benefits. On March 19, 2010, the Department sent notice to the Claimant that it was terminating her FAP, FIP, and MA benefits for failure to cooperate in the redetermination process.

The Claimant argued that she called the Department on March 4, 2010, because she could not attend the redetermination interview. The Claimant testified that she did not speak to her caseworker directly, but left a voicemail message. The Department testified that it did not receive a voicemail message from the Claimant on March 4, 2010. The Claimant provided a copy of her phone bill, which shows that on March 4, 2010 at 10:46 a.m. she called the DHS office.

While there is evidence that the Claimant may have attempted to reschedule her interview, there is no evidence that she returned the redetermination form or the requested verification documents to the Department before the due date. The Department had notified the Claimant that if she did not return the redetermination form that it could cancel her benefits. There is no evidence that the Claimant had difficulty locating her verification documents before the March 4, 2010, deadline, or had requested assistance in obtaining them.

The Department established that it properly determined the Claimant's eligibility for FAP, FIP, and MA benefits in accordance with policy.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the Department acted in accordance with policy in determining the Claimant's eligibility for FAP, FIP, and MA benefits.

The Department's FAP, FIP, and MA eligibility determination are AFFIRMED. It is SO ORDERED.
