ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Gary F. Heisler

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9; and MCL 400.37 upon claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on June 23, 2010. Claimant appeared and testified.

ISSUE

Did the Department of Human Services determine the proper amount of Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

(1) On April 22, 2010, Claimant submitted an application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits. The case was opened and at the time Claimant was not receiving any Unemployment Compensation Benefits (UCB).

(2) On May 14, 2010, a tape match showed that Claimant was receiving Unemployment

Compensation Benefits (UCB). That source of household income was added to Claimant's financial eligibility budget. Claimant was sent a Notice of Case Action (DHS-1605) stating his Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits would be reduced to $ [REDACTED] per month.

(3) On May 24, 2010, Claimant submitted a request for hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program) is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

In this case Claimant is concerned that he is getting all of the Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits he is eligible for. There are no issues regarding the amount of Unemployment Compensation Benefits (UCB) Claimant is receiving. Claimant asserts he has more shelter expenses than have been used in his financial eligibility budget. During the hearing testimony and evidence were entered regarding what Claimant had provided to the Department about his shelter expenses. During the subsequent review of Claimant's financial eligibility budget, I have discovered that Claimant is currently receiving the maximum amount of shelter deduction allowed. That fact negates the need to determine if the Department should have included more shelter expenses because additional shelter expenses would not change the amount of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits Claimant is eligible for.

When determining eligibility for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits in accordance with Department policy, the total income of the household must be evaluated. All earned and unearned income of each household member must be included, unless specifically excluded. Bridges Eligibility Manual, Item 500. The Food Assistance Program (FAP) program provides a deduction from earned income and a deduction for the cost of child care when necessary to enable a Food Assistance Program (FAP) household member to work. A standard deduction from income is allowed for each household. The amount of the standard deduction depends on the number of members in the household. Certain non-reimbursable medical expenses may be deducted for senior/disabled/veteran group members.

Another deduction from income is provided if monthly shelter costs are in excess of 50% of the household's income, after all of the other deductions have been allowed. There is a maximum deduction for households that do not contain a member classified as a senior, disabled, or veteran. Bridges Eligibility Manual, Items 500 and 554; Program Reference Manual, Table 255; 7 CFR 273.2.

In this case, the Administrative Law Judge has reviewed the Food Assistance Program (FAP) budget and finds that the department properly computed the claimant's net income and have allowed Claimant the maximum shelter expense. The federal regulations at 7 CFR 273.10 provide standards for the amount of a household's benefits. The department in compliance with the federal regulations has prepared issuance tables which are set forth at Program Reference Manual, Table 260. The issuance table provides that a household with household size and net income of the claimant's is eligible for a Food Assistance Program (FAP) allotment of $ [REDACTED]

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides the Department of Human Services determined the proper amount of Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

It is ORDERED that the actions of the Department of Human Services, in this matter, are UPHELD.
