IN THE MATTER OF:

[REDACTED]

Reg. No.: 201037465
Issue No.: 1003; 1005
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Load No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: November 4, 2010
Wayne County DHS

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Aaron McClintic

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon the Claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on December 6, 2010. The Claimant appeared and testified. [REDACTED], FIS; [REDACTED], FIM appeared on behalf of the Department. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] from the Office of Child Support appeared and testified.

ISSUE

Was the Department correct in closing Claimant's FIP benefits and sanctioning Claimant's FAP and MA benefits for failing to cooperate with the Office of Child Support?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) Claimant was a FIP recipient.
- (2) Claimant was alleged to be noncooperative with the Office of Child Support.
- (3) Claimant submitted information to the Office of Child Support regarding the putative father of her child including his first name and the location where she met him.

- (4) Claimant submitted all information she has regarding the putative father to the Department.
- (5) Written allegations of noncompliance were not presented by the Department at hearing.
- (6) On February 25, 2010 Claimant's FIP benefits closed and benefits were sanctioned.
- (7) Claimant requested a hearing on March 2, 2010 contesting the closure and sanction of benefits. Claimant's benefits were reinstated pending this hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Family Independence program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 8 USC 601, et seq. The Department of Human services (DHS or Department) administers the FIP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3101-3131. The FIP program replaced the Aid to Dependant Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference manual (PRM).

The Food Assistance Program, formerly known as the Food Stamp ("FS") program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations ("CFR"). The Department of Human Services ("DHS"), formerly known as the Family Independence Agency, administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Departmental policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual ("BAM"), the Bridges Eligibility Manual ("bEM"), and the Program Reference Manual ("PRM").

Regulations governing the Office of Child Support (OCS) can be found in the IV-D Manual (4DM).

Clients must comply with all requests for action or information needed to establish paternity and/or obtain child support on behalf of children for whom they receive assistance, unless a claim of good cause for not cooperating has been granted or is pending. Failure to cooperate without good cause results in disqualification. Disqualification includes member removal, denial of program benefits, and/or case closure, depending on the program. BEM 255.

201037465/AM

Non-cooperation exists when a client, without good cause, willfully and repeatedly fails or refuses to provide information and/or take an action resulting in delays or prevention of support action. 4DM 115.

Before finding a client non-cooperative, the Support Specialist must establish and document that the client failed and/or refused to provide known or obtainable information and/or to take an action without an acceptable reason or excuse. 4DM 115. The goal of the cooperation requirement is to obtain support. Support specialists should find non-cooperation only as a last resort. There is no minimum information requirement. 4DM 115.

Several factors may affect a client's ability to remember or obtain information. In evaluating cooperation, the Support Specialist should consider such factors as client's marital status, duration of relationship and length of time since last contact with the non-custodial parent. A client who was married to the non-custodial parent or knew the putative father for several months can reasonably be expected to provide identifying and location information. The extent and age of location information obtainable may be affected by how long it has been since the parties last lived together or had personal contact. 4DM 115.

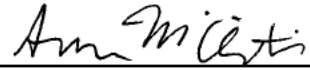

In the present case, Claimant credibly testified that she provided all the information she has regarding the putative father to the Office of Child Support. The Office of Child Support could not point to any information that Claimant had that she refused to provide. The Department failed to meet its burden to prove Claimant was noncooperative regarding the paternity of her child. This Administrative Law Judge finds that Claimant was cooperative and therefore closure of FIP benefits for noncooperation with the Office of Child Support was not warranted and improper. Claimant was sufficiently cooperative.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law decides that the Department was not correct in the imposition of sanction for failing to cooperate with the Office of Child Support, and it is ORDERED that the Department's decision is hereby REVERSED. FIP benefits shall be reinstated as of the date of closure and the sanction shall be lifted going back to the day the sanction was implemented. Any missed benefits shall be paid to Claimant in the form of a supplement.
