ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Aaron McClintic

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon the Claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on July 19, 2010. The Claimant appeared and testified. [REDACTED], FIS appeared on behalf of the Department.

ISSUE

Did the Department properly close Claimant's Family Independence Program ("FIP") benefits case for non-compliance with the Work First/Jobs Education and Training ("JET") program?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Claimant was a recipient of FIP benefits who was assigned to JET.
2. Claimant failed to participate with the Work First program and her case was referred to triage.
3. Notice of Noncompliance was sent to Claimant on May 3, 2010 with notice of a May 11, 2010 triage meeting.
4. On May 11, 2010 a triage meeting was held and the Department determined that Claimant was noncompliant and did not have good cause for noncompliance.
5. Claimant was referred back to the Work First program on May 17, 2010.
6. Claimant did not appear and her case was placed into closure.
7. Claimant testified that she suffers from depression.
8. On July 1, 2010 Claimant's FIP case closed and a 90 day sanction was imposed.

9. Claimant requested hearing on June 8, 2010 contesting the closure and sanction of FIP benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Family Independence program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 8 USC 601, et seq. The Department of Human services (DHS or Department) administers the FIP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3101-3131. The FIP program replaced the Aid to Dependant Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference manual (PRM).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) provides temporary cash assistance to support a family's movement to self-sufficiency. The recipients of FIP engage in employment and self-sufficiency-related activities so they can become self-supporting. Federal and State laws require each work eligible individual (WEI) in the FIP group to participate in the Jobs, Education and Training (JET) Program or other employment-related activities unless temporarily deferred or engaged in activities that meet participation requirements. These clients must participate in employment and/or self-sufficiency related activities to increase their employability and obtain stable employment. BEM 230A.

JET is a program administered by the Michigan Department of Labor and Economic Growth (DLEG) through the Michigan Works Agencies (MWAs). The JET program serves employers and job seekers for employers to have skilled workers and job seekers to obtain jobs that provide economic self-sufficiency. BEM 230 A. A mandatory participant in the JET program who fails without good cause to participate in employment activity must be penalized. BEM 233(a). The penalty for the first occurrence of noncompliance in the JET program is a closure for a minimum of three calendar months under the FIP program. BEM 233(a). Good cause is a valid reason for noncompliance with employment related activities. A claim of good cause must be verified and documented for applicants, members, and recipients. BEM Manual Item 230(a), BEM Manual Item 230(b); 7 CFR Parts 272 and 273.

In the present case, Claimant testified that she suffers from depression and this condition precluded her from participating with Work First. Claimant presented no medical evidence for the period of time in question that verifies that her condition precluded her from participating. Department policy requires that claims of good cause must be verified and documented. BEM 230(a), BEM 230(b). Therefore the Department's determination that Claimant did not have good cause is proper and correct.

201039953/AM

This Administrative Law Judge finds that Claimant refused to cooperate or failed to make a reasonable effort to participate with JET without good cause. Accordingly, the Department's closure of FIP benefits was proper.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law decides that the Department was correct in the closure of FIP benefits, and it is ORDERED that the Department's decision in this regard be and is hereby AFFIRMED.
