HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge by authority of MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37. Claimant's request for a hearing was received on August 26, 2010. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on Thursday, October 28, 2010.

ISSUE

Whether the Department of Human Services (Department) properly determined the Claimant's Child Development and Care (CDC) eligibility?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Claimant was an ongoing CDC recipient.
2. On June 15, 2010, the Department sent the Claimant a Redetermination form with a due date of July 12, 2010.
3. On July 12, 2010, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist with a due date of July 22, 2010. The Department had requested verification of the Claimant's employment.
4. On August 16, 2010, the Department notified the Claimant that his CDC benefits would be terminated effective September 1, 2010.

5. The Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing on August 26, 2010, protesting the termination of his CDC benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Child Development and Care program is established by Titles IVA, IVE, and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department of Human Services (DHS or Department) provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and M AC R 400.5001-5015. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Reference Table Manual (RFT), and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes the completion of necessary forms. BAM 105, p. 5. Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. BAM 130, p. 1. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. BAM 130, p. 1. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. BAM 130, p. 1. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. BAM 130, p. 2. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. BAM 130.

In this case, the Claimant was an ongoing CDC recipient when the Department sent the Claimant a Redetermination form with a due date of July 12, 2010. Following the Redetermination interview, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist with a due date of July 22, 2010. The Department had requested verification of the Claimant's employment. When the Claimant did not return the Verification Checklist with the requested verification documents, the Department terminated the Claimant's CDC benefits effective September 1, 2010.

The Department has established that it properly terminated the Claimant's CDC benefits for failure to submit information necessary to determine eligibility for benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the Department acted in accordance with policy when it terminated the Claimant's CDC benefits for failing to provide information necessary to determine eligibility.

The Department's CDC eligibility determination is AFFIRMED. It is SO ORDERED.
