ISSUE

Whether the Department properly calculated the Claimant's Medical Assistance ("MA") deductible?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On or about August 17, 2009, the Department determined that the Claimant was eligible for Medical Assistance based on his status as a Caretaker Relative for his minor grandson who lived in the home.

2. The Claimant receives $985.00/month in Veteran's Assistance ("VA") benefits.
3. The Department ran a MA budget and determined that the Claimant was eligible for MA benefits provided a $207.00 monthly deductible was met.
4. On this date, August 17, 2009, the Department notified the Claimant of his eligibility and deductible amount.
5. On August 25, 2009, the Department received the Claimant's written request for hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Medical Assistance ("MA") program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations ("CFR"). The Department of Human Services, formerly known as the Family Independence Agency, administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq and MCL 400.105. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual ("BAM"), the Bridges Eligibility Manual ("BEM"), and the Bridges Program Glossary ("BPG").

The goal of the Medicaid program is to ensure that essential health care services are made available to those who otherwise could not afford them. BEM 105 Medicaid is also known as Medical Assistance ("MA"). Id. The Medicaid program is comprised of several categories; one category is for FIP recipients while another is for SSI recipients. Id. Programs for individuals not receiving FIP or SSI are based on eligibility factors in either the FIP or SSI program thus are categorized as either FIP-related or SSI-related. Id. To receive MA under an SSI-related category, the person must be aged (65 or older), blind, disabled, entitled to Medicare or formally blind or disabled. Id. Families with dependent children, caretaker relatives of dependent children, persons under age 21 and pregnant, or recently pregnant women, receive MA under FIP-related categories. Id.

In general, the terms Group 1 and Group 2 relate to financial eligibility factors. PEM 155 through 174 discusses SSI-related categories. PEM 105 Financial eligibility for Group 1 exists when countable income minus allowable expenses equals or is below certain income limits. Id. MA income eligibility exists for the calendar month tested when there is no excess income or allowable medical expenses that equal or exceed the excess income. BEM 545 The fiscal group's monthly excess income is called a deductible amount. Id. Meeting a deductible means reporting and verifying allowable medical expenses that equal or exceed the deductible amount for the calendar month tested. Id. FIP- and SSI-related Group 2 eligibility is possible even when net income exceeds the income limit because incurred medical expenses are considered. Id. Eligibility is determined on a calendar month basis. BEM 105 Individuals that are aged (65 or older) blind or disabled fall under the SSI-related Group 2 MA category. BEM 166

In this case, the Claimant was found eligible for MA benefits based on his status of a caretaker relative for his minor grandson who lives in the home. As a result, the Department ran a MA budget which included the Claimant's $985.00 monthly VA income. The Claimant was found eligible for MA provided the $207.00 monthly deductible was met. The Claimant agreed with the income figure used in calculating his MA deductible, but disagreed with the deductible amount. Ultimately, the Department established it acted in accordance with department policy when it calculated the Claimant's MA budget. Accordingly, the Department's determination is affirmed.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it calculated the Claimant's MA deductible amount.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED:

The Department's determination is AFFIRMED.
