Reg. No.: 201016833
Issue No.: 2026
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Load No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: October 11, 2010

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Aaron McClintic

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon the Claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on October 11, 2010. The Claimant appeared at the hearing and testified. [REDACTED], and [REDACTED], ES appeared on behalf of the Department.

ISSUE

Was the Department correct in determining Claimant's MA eligibility?

FINDINGS OF FACT

- (1) Claimant was a Medicaid recipient.
- (2) Claimant is receiving RSDI benefits of $1419.
- (3) The Department determined that Claimant had an $899 Medicaid deductible.
- (4) Claimant requested a hearing on September 2, 2009 contesting the amount of her Medicaid spend down.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM). The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM). The Medical Assistance program was designed to assist needy persons with medical expenses. The State of Michigan has set guidelines for income, which determines if a MA group falls within the needy classification. Under PEM Items 544 and 545, an eligible Medical Assistance group (Group II MA) has income the same as or less than the “protected income level” plus medical insurance premiums as set forth in the policy contained in the program reference table. An individual or MA group whose income is in excess of the monthly protected income level is ineligible to receive MA. However a MA group may become eligible for assistance under the deductible program. A deductible is a process, which allows a client with excess income to be eligible for MA, if sufficient allowable medical expenses are incurred. Each calendar month is a separate deductible period. The fiscal group’s monthly excess income is called the deductible amount. Meeting a deductible means reporting and verifying allowable medical expenses that equal or exceed the deductible amount for the calendar month. The MA group must report expenses by the last day of the third month following the month it wants medical coverage. (BEM 545; 42 CFR 435.831).

In the present case, claimant is contesting the deductible amount for her MA benefits. In determining net income a standard deduction of $20 is deducted for SSI-related Medical Assistance recipients (disabled). Claimant’s RSDI benefit is $1419, after subtracting $20 for the standard deduction her net income is $1399. Claimant’s net income $1399 exceeds the monthly protected income level of $500 by $899 per month. Claimant is consequently ineligible to receive Medical assistance. However under the deductible program, if the Claimant incurs medical expenses in excess of $899 during the month, she may then be eligible for Medical Assistance. This ALJ finds that the Department has acted in accordance with Department policy and law in denying ongoing Medical assistance and determining her deductible amount.

Issues were raised at hearing with regard to Claimant’s husband’s Medicaid application. Claimant’s husband, Lewis Mead, has a separate case and it was explained to Claimant that if he disagreed with the Department’s actions with regard to his application, then he needs to request a hearing.
