ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Steven M. Brown

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon Claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was conducted from [REDACTED] on March 9, 2010.

ISSUE

Whether the Department properly terminated Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) case based upon his failure to provide requested verification(s)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- (1) On November 16, 2009, Claimant applied for FAP benefits.
- (2) On November 25, 2009, the Department processed Claimant's application and mailed him a Verification Checklist with a due date of December 7, 2009. (Exhibit 1)

(3) Claimant did not return the proofs requested by the Department by the due date on the Verification Checklist.

(4) On January 6, 2009, the Department mailed Claimant a Notice of Case Action which informed him that his FAP benefits were cancelled because he failed to verify or allow the Department to verify necessary information. (Exhibit 2)

(5) On January 15, 2009, the Department received Claimant's hearing request.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department), administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Departmental policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes the completion of necessary forms. BAM 105, p. 5 Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. BAM 130, p.1 Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as local office option or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete or contradictory. BAM 130, p.1 The Department uses documents, collateral contacts or home calls to verify information. BAM 130, p.1 A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization or agency to verify information from the client. BAM 130, p. 2 When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. BAM 130, p. 2

Clients are allowed 10 calendar days (or other time limit specified in policy) to provide the verifications requested by the Department. BAM 130, p. 4 If the client cannot provide the verification despite a reasonable effort, the time limit should be extended no more than once. BAM 130, p. 4 A negative action notice should be sent when the client indicates a refusal to provide the verification or the time period provided has lapsed and the client has not made a reasonable effort to provide it. BAM 130, p.4

In the instant case, while Claimant did check on the status of his FAP benefits on January 6, 2010 because they were not on his card and stated in that email correspondence - "I think I emailed the letter from my employer about my employment ending..... [REDACTED] was suppose to call you and if he did not do so his cell number.....", it does not appear to the undersigned that Claimant provided and/or made a reasonable effort to provide the proofs requested by he Department prior to the December 7, 2009 due date. The Verification Checklist is very clear that the requested proofs must be provided by the due date or benefits could be cancelled. With that said, I find that the Department established that it acted in accordance with policy in terminating Claimant's FAP benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that the Department acted in accordance with policy in terminating Claimant's FAP benefits.

Accordingly, the Department's FAP eligibility determination is AFFIRMED, it is
