ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Linda Steadley Schwarb

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a hearing was held on June 14, 2010. Claimant was represented by [REDACTED].

ISSUE

Did the Department of Human Services (DHS or department) properly deny claimant's application for Medical Assistance (MA-P) program benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1) On July 16, 2009, an application was filed on claimant's behalf for MA-P benefits. The application requested MA-P retroactive to April of 2009.
- 2) On May 7, 2010, the department denied claimant's application for benefits based upon the belief that claimant did not meet the requisite disability criteria.

- 3) On May 7, 2010, a hearing request was filed to protest the department's determination.
- 4) Thereafter, the Social Security Administration awarded Supplemental Security Income (SSI) to claimant with a disability onset date of April 24, 2009.
- 5) At the hearing, the parties reached an accord. The department agreed to initiate reconsideration of claimant's July 16, 2009, application for MA-P in light of the Social Security Administration disability award. The department agreed to consider all other non-medical eligibility requirements if they have not already been reviewed. The department agreed to notify claimant and his authorized representative of its determination in writing.
- 6) Claimant's authorized representative indicated satisfaction with the department's plan of action.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105. Department policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual (PAM), the Program Eligibility Manual (PEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

The law provides that disposition may be made of a contested case by stipulation or agreed settlement. MCL 24.278(2). In this case, the parties reached an accord. In light of the Social Security Disability award, the department agreed to initiate reconsideration of claimant's July 16, 2009, application for Medical Assistance. The department agreed to consider all other non-medical eligibility criteria if they have not already been reviewed. The department indicated that it would notify claimant and his authorized representative of its determination in writing.

Claimant's authorized representative indicated satisfaction with the department's plan of action.
