ISSUE

Did the Department of Human Services (DHS or department) properly deny claimant's application for Medical Assistance (MA-P) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1) On January 28, 2010, an application was filed on claimant's behalf for MA-P benefits. The application requested MA-P retroactive to October of 2009.
- 2) On February 18, 2010, the department denied claimant's application for benefits based upon the belief that claimant did not meet the requisite disability criteria.

- 3) On May 11, 2010, a hearing request was filed to protest the department's determination.
- 4) Thereafter, the Social Security Administration awarded claimant Supplemental Security Income/Retirement, Survivor's and Disability Insurance with a disability onset date of October 31, 2008.
- 5) At the hearing, the parties reached an accord. Based upon the Social Security Administration's determination, the department agreed to initiate reconsideration of claimant's January 28, 2010, application. The department agreed to notify claimant and his authorized representative of its determination in writing.
- 6) Claimant's authorized representative indicated satisfaction with the department's plan of action.
