CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Medical Assistance ("MA") program is established by Subchapter XIX of Chapter 7 of The Public Health & Welfare Act. 42 USC 1397 and is administered by the Department of Human Services, formerly known as the Family Independence Agency, pursuant to MCL 400.10 et seq and MCL 400.105. Departmental policies are found in the Program Administrative Manual ("PAM"), the Program Eligibility Manual ("PEM"), and the Program Reference Manual ("PRM").

A request for public assistance may be in person, by mail, telephone or through by an internet application. PAM 110 Clients must complete and sign public assistance applications. PAM 115 An application is incomplete until enough information is provided to determine eligibility. PAM 115 Registered applications must contain, at a minimum, the name, birth date, and address of the applicant, along with the signature of the applicant or authorized representative. PAM 105 Retro-MA coverage is available back to the first day of the third calendar month prior to the application date. PAM 115 If a client refuses to cooperate in the application process, a denial notice is sent within the standard of promptness. PAM 115

Any person, regardless of age, or his authorized representative, may apply for assistance. PAM 110 An authorized representative ("AR") is a person who applies for assistance on behalf of the client and/or otherwise acts of his behalf. PAM 110 An individual who is not a spouse, parent, legal guardian, adult child, stepchild, or other specified relative of the person, must have a signed authorization to act on behalf of the client, by the client, client's spouse, parent(s) or legal guardian. PAM 110 An AR assumes all responsibilities of the client and must provide his name, address, and title or relationship to the client. Id. The application form must be signed by the client or the individual acting as the authorized representative. Id. An application received from an agency is acceptable if it is signed by an individual and is accompanied by written documentation from the client authorizing the agency to act as the authorized representative. In this case, the Claimant/Representative submitted a MA application on July 8, 2008. At the time of application, the Department had the proper signed authorizations to represent. Accordingly, the Department's actions are not upheld.
