CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or Department), administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Reference Table Manual (RFT), and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes the completion of necessary forms. BAM 105, p. 5. Verification means documentation or other evidence e to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or 130, p. 1. Verification is usually written statements. BAM required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is r equired by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. BAM 130, p. 1. The Department uses docum ents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. BAM 130, p. 1. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. BAM 130, p. 2. When documentation is not available, or clarific ation is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. BAM 130.

Clients are allowed ten calend ar days to provide the veri fications requested by the Department. BAM 130, p. 4. The Department should send a negative action notice when the client indicates a refusal to provide the verification, or the time period provided has lapsed and the client has not made a reasonable effort to provide it. BAM 130, p. 4. The Department should extend the time limit no more than once if the client cannot provide the verification despite a reasonable effort. BAM 130, p. 4.

In this cas e, the Claimant applied for Food Assistan ce Program (FAP) benefits on January 4, 2011. The Department sent the Claimant a Verific ation Checklist (DHA-3503) with a due date of January 31, 2011. The Department requested that the Claimant verify his income. On February 1, 2011, the Department had not received verification of the Claimant's income, and sent the Claimant notice that it had denied his application for Food Assistanc e Program (FAP) benefits for failure to provide information necessary to determine his eligibility.

Based on the evidence and testimony available during the hearing, the Department has established that it properly denied the Claimant's F ood Assist ance Program (FAP) application.
