ISSUE

Whether the Department of Human Services (Department) properly determined the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) eligibility?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Claimant was an ongoing Food Assistance Program (FAP) recipient.
2. On [REDACTED] the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist (DHS-3503), with a due date of [REDACTED]. The Department requested verification of the Claimant's income.
3. The Department terminated the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits on [REDACTED], for failure to provide information necessary to determine her eligibility to receive benefits.
4. The Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing on [REDACTED], protesting the termination of her Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or Department), administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Reference Table Manual (RFT), and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes the completion of necessary forms. BAM 105 Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. BAM 130 Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. BAM 130. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. BAM 130. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. BAM 130 When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. BAM 130.

Clients are allowed ten calendar days to provide the verifications requested by the Department. BAM 130. The Department should send a negative action notice when the client indicates a refusal to provide the verification, or the time period provided has lapsed and the client has not made a reasonable effort to provide it. BAM 130. The Department should extend the time limit no more than once if the client cannot provide the verification despite a reasonable effort. BAM 130.

In this case, the Claimant was an ongoing Food Assistance Program (FAP) recipient. As a result of information the Department had received during the redetermination process, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist (DHS-3503), with a due date of [REDACTED]. The Department had requested that the Claimant verify her household income. On [REDACTED], the Department had not received verification of the Claimant's income, and it terminated her Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits for failure to provide information necessary to determine her eligibility.

The Claimant argued that she submitted the necessary verification of her income. The Claimant testified that she hand delivered her documents to the Department's office.

The Department's representative testified that no verification documents were received from the Claimant. No evidence was available during the hearing showing that verification documents were submitted to the Department before the due date.

The Department has established that it properly terminated the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits for failure to provide information necessary to determine her eligibility to receive benefits

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the Department acted in accordance with policy in determining the Claimant's FAP eligibility.

The Department's FAP eligibility determination is AFFIRMED. It is SO ORDERED.
