ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE
DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

[REDACTED]

Reg. No.: 201120737
Issue No.: 1025
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Load No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: April 18, 2011

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: [REDACTED]

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon Claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on April 18, 2011. Claimant appeared and testified. Claimant's mother, [REDACTED], also testified on behalf of Claimant. The Department of Human Services (Department) was represented by [REDACTED].

ISSUE

Was the Department correct in closing Claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) case due to refusal to cooperate in child support matters?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Claimant was an ongoing FIP recipient.
2. The Department closed Claimant's FIP case effective March 1, 2011 for refusing to cooperate in child support matters.
3. Claimant requested a hearing, protesting the negative action.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Family Independence program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 8 USC 601, et seq. The Department administers the FIP program pursuant to MCL

201120737/SCB

400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3101-3131. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM), which includes the Reference Tables (RFT.)

Regulations governing the Office of Child Support (OCS) can be found in the IV-D Manual (4DM).

Clients must comply with all requests for action or information needed to establish paternity and/or obtain child support on behalf of children for whom they receive assistance, unless a claim of good cause for not cooperating has been granted or is pending. Failure to cooperate without good cause results in disqualification. Disqualification includes member removal, denial of program benefits, and/or case closure, depending on the program. BEM 255.

Non-cooperation exists when a client, without good cause, willfully and repeatedly fails or refuses to provide information and/or take an action resulting in delays or prevention of support action. 4DM 115.

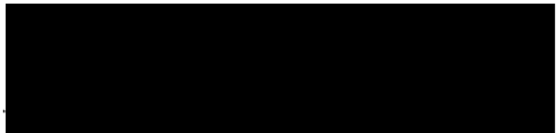

Before finding a client non-cooperative, the Support Specialist must establish and document that the client failed and/or refused to provide known or obtainable information and/or to take an action without an acceptable reason or excuse. 4DM 115. The goal of the cooperation requirement is to obtain support. Support specialists should find non-cooperation only as a last resort. There is no minimum information requirement. 4DM 115.

Several factors may affect a client's ability to remember or obtain information. In evaluating cooperation, the Support Specialist should consider such factors as client's marital status, duration of relationship and length of time since last contact with the non-custodial parent. A client who was married to the non-custodial parent or knew the putative father for several months can reasonably be expected to provide identifying and location information. The extent and age of location information obtainable may be affected by how long it has been since the parties last lived together or had personal contact. 4DM 115.

In the present case, the Department did not call a witness at the hearing from the Office of Child Support. The Department representative did not know the details of non-cooperation. It is noted that both Claimant and her mother testified credibly that Claimant submitted the name of the father of Claimant's child, and that Claimant left a message with the child support specialist, but the specialist did not return Claimant's call. Without detailed proof of noncooperation, this Administrative Law Judge cannot find that Claimant failed to cooperate with respect to child support. Therefore, the Department was incorrect in closing Claimant's FIP case.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that the Department was not correct in its decision to close Claimant's FIP case, and it is ORDERED, therefore, that its decision is REVERSED. It is further ORDERED that Claimant's FIP case shall be reinstated and restored effective March 1, 2011, if Claimant otherwise qualifies, and all missed or increased benefits shall be made in the form of supplemental payments.
