Issue No: 3008
Case No: [REDACTED]

SSPC East DHS (98)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Lynn M. Ferris

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon the Claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was conducted from Detroit, Michigan on April 6, 2011. The Claimant appeared and testified. Rebecca Robinson, Assistance Payments Supervisor, appeared on behalf of the Department.

ISSUE

Whether the Department properly denied the Claimant's Food Assistance (FAP) application due to Claimant's failure to return employment information requested by the Verification Checklist by the due date?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material facts:

1. The Claimant applied for Food Assistance (FAP) benefits on January 3, 2011.
2. On January 25, 2011, the Claimant was sent a verification checklist requesting proof of her monthly rent amount and verification of employment.

3. The Claimant received the verification checklist.
4. The Verification information was due to be returned on February 4, 2011.
5. On February 7, 2011, the Claimant faxed information regarding employment income from one job. The Department did not receive information regarding the Claimant's second job. The Claimant also faxed the Department proof of her rent. Exhibit 1.
6. The Claimant faxed a bank statement to verify proof of employment, which was not an acceptable verification of employment. On March 2, 2011, the claimant did provide the check stubs for her second job, after the verifications were due and the application denied.
7. The Claimant did not request an extension of time to file the verification information requested by the Department.
8. The Department did not receive the requested information by the due date.
9. The Claimant requested a hearing on March 2, 2011, protesting the denial of her Food Assistance application. The hearing request was received by the Department on March 2, 2011.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS) administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables (RFT).

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility to provide verification. BAM 130, p. 1. The questionable information might be from the client or a third party. Id. The Department can use documents, collateral contacts or home calls to verify information. Id. The client should be allowed 10 calendar days to provide the verification. If the client cannot provide the verification despite a reasonable effort, the time limit to provide should be extended at least once. BAM 130, p.4; BEM 702. If the client refuses to provide the information or has not made a reasonable effort within the specified time period, then policy directs that a negative action be issued. BAM 130, p. 4. Before making an eligibility determination, however, the department must give the client a reasonable opportunity to resolve any discrepancy between his statements and information from another source. BAM 130, p.

The Department is required to verify employment and income at application and when a change is reported. If the client fails to verify these items the Department must close the Claimant's case or deny the application for failure to verify the requested information. BEM 554, p. 11.

In this case, the Department mailed out a Verification Checklist seeking verification of employment for two jobs and rent information. The Claimant received the verification checklist and provided verification of employment for only one job. The Claimant did not provide the proof of employment from the second job until she filed her hearing request on March 2, 2010. The Department under these circumstances correctly denied the Claimant's FAP application because the information was not received by the Department prior to the verification checklist deadline, and thus it acted correctly and in accordance with its policy when it denied the application. BAM 130 id. The claimant is encouraged to reapply for Food Assistance and to provide the verification from employment for both jobs at that time.

Based on the foregoing, it is found that the Department's denial of the Claimant's FAP application was in accordance with policy and was proper, and therefore is AFFIRMED.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that the Department met its burden of proof and that there was sufficient evidence presented to affirm the Department's actions and, therefore, the denial of the Claimant's Food Assistance application by the Department is AFFIRMED
