ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Jan Leventer

HEARING DECISION

appeared and testified on behalf of the Department of Human Services (DHS).

ISSUE

Whether DHS denied Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits in accordance with DHS policies and procedures?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on competent, material, and substantial evidence in the record and on the entire record as a whole, finds as fact:

- 1. In January 2010, DHS awarded FAP benefits to Claimant.
- 2. On March 9, 2011, DHS sent Claimant a Notice of Overissuance, stating that there was a $386 overissuance in July 2010 and announcing that this amount would be recouped on a monthly basis from Claimant's ongoing FAP benefits.
- On March 16, 2011, Claimant filed a Request for a Hearing with DHS.
- 4. At the hearing on April 18, 2011, DHS explained that regardless of who caused the error, DHS had a right to recoup the money mistakenly issued to Claimant.

5. As a result of DHS' explanation, Claimant testified she no longer wished to continue the Administrative Hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

FAP was established by the U.S. Food Stamp Act of 1977 and is implemented by Federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations. DHS administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 et seq. and Michigan Administrative Code Rules 400.3001-400.3015. DHS' policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables (RFT). These manuals are available online at www.michigan.gov/dhs-manuals.

Under BAM Item 600, clients have the right to contest any DHS decision affecting eligibility or benefit levels whenever they believe the decision is illegal. DHS provides an Administrative Hearing to review the decision and determine if it is appropriate. DHS policy includes procedures to meet the minimal requirements for a fair hearing. Efforts to clarify and resolve the client's concerns start when DHS receives a hearing request and continue through the day of the hearing.

At the Administrative Hearing in this case, the Claimant received an adequate explanation of DHS' recoupment action in her case and testified that now that she understood it, she was satisfied with DHS' action. As the parties have reached an agreement, it is not necessary for the Administrative Law Judge to decide the issue presented in this case.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above findings of fact, conclusions of law, and the settlement agreement of the parties, states IT IS ORDERED that DHS' recoupment action is correct and Claimant no longer disputes it, therefore the Agency need take no further action. IT IS SO ORDERED.
