CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700.

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities.

IPV is suspected when there is clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for cases when:

- benefit overissuances are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfare fraud is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
- the total overissuance amount is $1000 or more, or
- the total overissuance amount is less than $1000, and
 - the group has a previous intentional program violation, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance.
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them. Other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720.

Additionally, the OIG agent testified that recoupment of a $839.00 OI in FAP benefits and $305.00 OI in FIP benefits is being sought based on the Respondent's failure to report earned income that was received on an episodal basis. The evidence shows that the Respondent notified the Department on her Assistance Application that she would resume employment in October of 2005. Therefore, the OI of $152.00 for FAP benefits for the time period of October 1, 2005 through October 31, 2005 is dismissed. Further, there was no crebible evidence that the Respondent had an intent to commit an Intentional Program Violation with respect to the FIP and FAP program in April of 2007.

The OIG agent further testified that the Respondent received $1,044.00 during the OI period of April 1, 2007 through November 30, 2007. The evidence and testimony established that the Respondent was lawfully entitled to $50 in FAP benefits during that period of OI. Based on these facts, the OIG agent has established that it is entitiled to recoup an OI of $305.00 in FIP and $739.00 in FAP benefits.
