This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge by authority of MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37. Claimant's request for a hearing was received on May 18, 2011. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on Wednesday, June 29, 2011.

ISSUE

Whether the Department of Human Services (Department) properly determined the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) eligibility?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department received the Claimant's application for the Food Assistance Program (FAP) on April 7, 2011.
2. On April 13, 2011, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist with a due date of April 25, 2011.
3. On April 21, 2011, the Department received a set of documents from the Claimant in response to the Verification Checklist that were incomplete.
4. On May 5, 2011, the Department notified the Claimant that it had denied her Food Assistance Program (FAP) application for failure to provide information necessary to determine her eligibility to receive benefits.
5. The Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing on May 18, 2011, protesting the denial of her Food Assistance Program (FAP) application.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (DHS or Department), administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Reference Table Manual (RFT), and the Bridges Reference Manual (BRM).

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes the completion of necessary forms. BAM 105. Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. BAM 130. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. BAM 130. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. BAM 130. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. BAM 130. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. BAM 130.

Clients are allowed ten calendar days to provide the verifications requested by the Department. BAM 130. The Department should send a negative action notice when the client indicates a refusal to provide the verification, or the time period provided has lapsed and the client has not made a reasonable effort to provide it. BAM 130. The Department should extend the time limit no more than once if the client cannot provide the verification despite a reasonable effort. BAM 130.

In this case, the Department received the Claimant's application for the Food Assistance Program (FAP) on April 7, 2011. On April 13, 2011, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist with a due date of April 25, 2011. On April 21, 2011, the Department received a set of documents from the Claimant in response to the Verification Checklist that were incomplete. The Claimant failed to include all of the necessary information detailing her expenses, and failed to include a signature certifying the attached information. On May 5, 2011, the Department notified the Claimant that it had denied her Food Assistance Program (FAP) application for failure to provide information necessary to determine her eligibility to receive benefits.

Based on the evidence and testimony available during the hearing, the Department has established that it properly determined the Claimant's eligibility for the Food Assistance Program (FAP).

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the Department acted in accordance with policy in determining the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) eligibility.

The Department's Food Assistance Program (FAP) eligibility determination is AFFIRMED. It is SO ORDERED.
