[REDACTED]

Reg. No: 2011-41892
Issue No: 1022
Case No: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: August 4, 2011
Genesee County DHS

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Christopher S. Saunders

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon claimant's request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on August 4, 2011. The claimant appeared and provided testimony.

ISSUE

Did the department properly deny the claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits application?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The claimant applied for FIP benefits on May 9, 2011.
2. The claimant's application was denied June 4, 2011 because it was determined he did not meet the eligibility criteria for the FIP program. (Department Exhibit 3).
3. The claimant submitted a hearing request on June 13, 2011.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Clients have the right to contest a department decision affecting eligibility for benefit levels whenever it is believed that the decision is incorrect. BAM 600. The department provides an administrative hearing to review the decision and determine its appropriateness. BAM 600.

The regulations that govern the hearing and appeal process for applicants and recipients of public assistance in Michigan are contained in the Michigan Administrative Code (Mich Admin Code) Rules 400.901 through 400.951. An opportunity for a hearing shall be granted to a recipient who is aggrieved by an agency action resulting in suspension, reduction, discontinuance, or termination of assistance. Mich Admin Code 400.903(1).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 8 USC 601, et seq. The Department of Human Services (DHS or department) administers the FIP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MAC R 400.3101-3131. The FIP program replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Program Reference Manual (PRM).

Regarding the FIP program eligibility, department policy states as follows:

DEPARTMENT PHILOSOPHY

The Department of Human Services (DHS) believes that children are best served by living in supportive family settings. The mutual responsibility of family members for each other and their commitment to caring for each other are key to building strong families. Parents are responsible for the care and support of their minor children. In the absence of parents, children may be cared for by other adults having specific relationships to the children. Spouses are responsible for each other. All needy family members living together are expected to share income, assets, and expenses. BEM 210.

FIP

Group composition is the determination of which individuals living together are included in the FIP eligibility determination group (EDG) and the FIP certified group. To be eligible for FIP, a child must live with a legal parent, stepparent or other qualifying caretaker. BEM 210.

According to department policy, eligibility for the FIP program turns on whether or not a claimant is a parent, stepparent, or qualifying caretaker of an un-emancipated minor. BEM 210. In the case at hand, the claimant testified that he has no children and is not the caretaker or guardian of any minor children. Therefore, because the claimant does not meet any of the criteria for FIP benefits, the department properly followed policy and denied his application for FIP benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the department properly denied the claimant's FIP benefits application for failure to meet the eligibility criteria.

Accordingly, the department's actions are AFFIRMED. SO ORDERED.
