After due notice, a telephone hearing was conducted on December 12, 2011, from Detroit, Michigan. Claimant appeared and testified at the hearing. ISSUE

Whether Claimant is eligible for Medical Assistance (MA or Medicaid), MA-retroactive and State Disability Assistance (SDA) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on competent, material and substantial evidence in the record and on the entire record as a whole, finds as fact:

1. From September of 2005 to January 3, 2011, Claimant was employed as a security officer supervisor with [REDACTED].
2. Claimant earned more than $1,000 in the past year.
3. On December 29, 2010, Claimant was injured and ceased work at [REDACTED].
4. On June 23, 2011 and on August 4, 2011, Claimant applied for MA, MA-retroactive and SDA benefits.

5. On July 8, 2011, and September 26, 2011, the Department determined that Claimant was not disabled, denied his two applications, and sent notices of the denials to Claimant.
6. On August 26, 2011, Claimant requested an administrative hearing with the Department.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

MA was established by Title XIX of the U.S. Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department administers MA pursuant to MCL 400.1, et seq., and MCL 400.105. Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT). These manuals are available online at www.michigan.gov/dhs-manuals.

SDA provides financial assistance for disabled persons and is established by 2004 Michigan Public Acts (PA) 344. The Department administers SDA pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Michigan Administrative Code Rules 400.3151-400.3180. Department policies are found in BAM, BEM AND RFT. Id.

Federal regulations require that DHS must use the same operative definition for disability as the Federal government uses for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits under Title XVI of the Social Security Act. 42 CFR 435.540(a). That definition is as follows:

“Disability” is:
. . . the inability to do any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months . . . 20 CFR 416.905.

In determining whether an individual is disabled, 20 CFR 416.920 requires the finder of fact to follow a sequential five-step evaluation process by which current work activity, the severity of impairment(s), residual functional capacity, and vocational factors (age, education, and work experience) are assessed, in that order.

A determination that an individual is not disabled can be made at any of the five steps. A determination that an individual is disabled can be made only at the third, fourth or fifth steps. If the fact finder finds disability at Steps 3, 4 or 5, it is not necessary to continue the evaluation through subsequent steps.

1. Current Substantial Gainful Activity

Substantial gainful activity (SGA) is defined as work activity that is both substantial and gainful. "Substantial work activity" is work activity that involves doing significant physical or mental activities. 20 CFR 416.972(a). "Gainful work activity" is work that is usually done for pay or profit, whether or not a profit is realized. 20 CFR 416.972(b). Generally, if an individual has earnings from employment or self-employment above a specific level set out in the Federal regulations, it is presumed that she or he has the demonstrated ability to engage in SGA. 20 CFR 416.974 and 416.975. If an individual engages in SGA, she or he is not disabled regardless of how severe the physical and mental impairments are and regardless of age, education and work experience. If the individual is not engaged in SGA, the analysis proceeds to the second step.

The current Federal maximum annual income is $1,000. In this case, it is found and determined that Claimant engaged in SGA during the past year and earned over the maximum amount of $1,000.

Accordingly, I find that Claimant is not disabled. Claimant is disqualified from MA and SDA benefits at Step 1 of the five-step sequential qualifying step approval process.

The Department is AFFIRMED.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, AFFIRMS the Department's denial of MA and SDA benefits in this case. Claimant engaged in SGA in the past year and is not disabled from work.

The Department is AFFIRMED. The Department need take no further action in this case.
