ISSUE

Whether the Department properly closed Claimant's case for benefits under Family Independence Program (FIP) based on Claimant's failure to participate in employment-related activities.

2. On November 4, 2011, the Department sent Claimant a Notice of Noncompliance informing Claimant of a failure to participate in employment-related activities on October 31, 2011 and November 4, 2011 and scheduling a triage on November 10, 2011.

3. Claimant participated did not participate in the triage.
4. The Department held the triage and found that Claimant had failed to comply with employment-related activities without good cause did not hold the triage.
5. Claimant did did not participate in employment-related activities.
6. Claimant had did not have good cause to not participate in employment-related activities.
7. On December 1, 2011, the Department closed Claimant's FIP case, based on a failure to participate in employment-related activities without good cause.
8. This was Claimant's first second third sanction for failing to comply with JET obligations.
 The Department did not sanction Claimant for the noncompliance.
9. On November 15, 2011, Claimant requested a hearing disputing the Department's action.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

In order to increase their employability and obtain employment, work eligible individuals (WEI) seeking FIP are required to participate in the JET Program or other employment-related activity unless temporarily deferred or engaged in activities that meet participation requirements. BEM 230A; BEM 233A. Failing or refusing to attend or participate in a JET program or other employment service provider without good cause constitutes a noncompliance with employment or self-sufficient related activities. BEM 233A. Good cause is a valid reason for noncompliance which is beyond the control of the noncompliant person. BEM 233A. JET participants will not be terminated from a JET program without the Department first scheduling a triage meeting with the client to jointly discuss noncompliance and good cause. BEM 233A. Good cause must be based on the best information available at the triage and must be considered even if the client does not attend the triage. BEM 233A. In processing a FIP closure, the Department is required to send the client a Notice of Noncompliance (DHS-2444) which must include the date(s) of the noncompliance, the reason the client was determined to be noncompliant, and the penalty duration. BEM 233A.

In the present case, the Department notified Claimant of two non-participation dates, October 31, 2011 and November 4, 2011. Claimant testified credibly that her son's school was closed due to a water main break from Monday, October 31, 2011 through Friday, November 4, 2011. Claimant stated that she did have a back-up babysitter, but that sitter was out of town until Thursday, November 3, 2011. Claimant did not give a satisfactory reason why she did not attend the Work First program on November 4, 2011. Claimant was therefore non-participatory without good cause on November 4, 2011.

In addition, Claimant did not deny that this was her second time that she was non-participatory without good cause.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly closed Claimant's FIP case. improperly closed Claimant's FIP case.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department did act properly. did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.
