

STATE OF MICHIGAN
MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING SYSTEM
ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE
DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

[REDACTED]

Reg. No. 20121279
Issue No. 3055; 4060
Case No. [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: November 30, 2011
Wayne County DHS (17)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Christian Gardocki

HEARING DECISION

This matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and MCL 400.37 upon a Department of Human Services (DHS) request for a hearing. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on November 30, 2011 from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], of the Office of Inspector General. Respondent appeared and testified.

ISSUE

The first issue is whether DHS established that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) concerning receipt of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

The second issue is whether DHS established a basis for debt collection and/or recoupment based on an alleged overissuance of FAP benefits.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Respondent was an ongoing FAP benefit recipient, including the period from 9/2005-6/2006.
2. From 9/2005-6/2006, Respondent worked for [REDACTED] and received various biweekly income wage payments (see Exhibit 30).
3. From 9/2005-6/2006, DHS not budget the employment income in the determination of Respondent's FAP benefit eligibility.

4. From 9/2005-6/2006, Respondent received $1517 in FAP benefits (see Exhibit 32-34).
5. After budgeting Respondent's employment income, DHS determined that Respondent should have received $0 in FAP benefits from 9/2005-6/2006.
6. On 9/30/11, DHS requested an IPV and/or debt collection hearing against Respondent concerning $1517 in allegedly over-issued and fraudulently obtained FAP benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program) is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). DHS administers the FAP pursuant to Michigan Compiled Laws 400.10, et seq., and Michigan Administrative Code R 400.3001-3015. DHS regulations are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Updates to DHS regulations are found in the Bridges Policy Bulletin (BPB).

Concerning whether an IPV occurred, the DHS regulations in effect at the time of the alleged overissuance shall be considered. Concerning whether DHS properly followed IPV and debt collection procedures, the regulations in effect as of 9/2011 (the month of the DHS hearing request) shall be considered. Current DHS manuals may be found online at the following URL: <http://www.mfia.state.mi.us/olmweb/ex/html/>.

This hearing was requested by DHS, in part, to establish that Respondent committed an IPV. DHS may request a hearing to establish an IPV and disqualification. BAM 600 at 3.

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities. BAM 720 at 1.

IPV is suspected when there is clear and convincing (emphasis added) evidence that the client or CDC provider has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720 at 1.

A clear and convincing threshold to establish IPV is a higher standard than a preponderance of evidence standard and less than a beyond any reasonable doubt standard. It is a standard which requires reasonable certainty of the truth; something that is highly probable. Black's Law Dictionary 888 (6th ed. 1990).

The Code of Federal Regulations also defines an IPV. Intentional program violations shall consist of having intentionally: (1) made a false or misleading statement, or misrepresented, concealed or withheld facts; or (2) committed any act that constitutes a violation of the Food Stamp Act, the Food Stamp Program Regulations, or any State statute for the purpose of using, presenting, transferring, acquiring, receiving, possessing or trafficking of coupons, authorization cards or reusable documents used as part of an automated benefit delivery system. 7 CFR 273.16(c).

The client/authorized representative (AR) is determined to have committed an IPV by:

- A court decision.
- An administrative hearing decision.
- The client signing a DHS-826, Request for Waiver of Disqualification Hearing or DHS-830, Disqualification Consent Agreement or other recoupment and disqualification agreement forms. Id.

In the present case, DHS alleged that Respondent committed fraud by failing to timely report employment wages. The evidence tended to establish that Respondent was aware of reporting responsibilities (based on the signature on the Assistance Application which is an acknowledgement of those responsibilities), that Respondent received a windfall of FAP benefits due to the failure by DHS to factor employment wages for Respondent's spouse and that there was no impairment that would prevent Respondent from fulfilling any reporting requirements.

It is less clear whether DHS established that Respondent intentionally failed to report the income to DHS. Generally, intent to defraud is established by written documentation from a client which contradicts known facts. DHS conceded having no such documentation.

DHS presumed that the failure by DHS to budget employment income in the present case was the fault of Respondent. Respondent testified and did not dispute the DHS contention. Respondent conceded that she reported the income to DHS less timely than she should have though she did not state when the income was reported. It could be reasonably contended that Respondent's failure to report the employment income amounts to withholding and concealing facts for the purpose of receiving benefits for which she was not entitled. Such an argument would be more persuasive had Respondent's alleged misrepresentation been based on activity rather than inactivity. Though there is some basis to find that Respondent fraudulently received benefits, the evidence does not quite meet the clear and convincing threshold. It is found that DHS failed to establish fraud by Respondent. It must then be considered whether an over-issuance of FAP benefits occurred.

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, DHS must attempt to recoup the over-issuance (OI). BAM 700 at 1. An OI is the amount of benefits issued to the client group in excess of what they were eligible to receive. Id. Recoupment is a DHS action to identify and recover a benefit OI. Id.

DHS may pursue an OI whether it is a client caused error or DHS error. Id. at 5. Client and DHS error OIs are not pursued if the estimated OI amount is less than $125 per program. BAM 700 at 7. If improper budgeting of income caused the OI, DHS is to recalculate the benefits using actual income for the past OI month for that income source. BAM 705 at 6.

DHS presented documentation from Respondent's employer establishing that Respondent received a first pay check on 8/8/05 (see Exhibit 30). It was also established that Respondent received wage income through 6/2006, the end of the OI period. It was further established that DHS did not budget Respondent's income in determining Respondent's FAP benefit eligibility from 9/2005-6/2006. DHS budgets verified that the OI amount was $1517. It is found that DHS established a basis for recoupment and/or debt collection for $1517 in over-issued FAP benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that DHS failed to establish that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP benefits issued from 9/2005-6/2006. The DHS hearing request is PARTIALLY DISMISSED.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that DHS established a basis for debt collection and/or recoupment against Respondent for $1517 in FAP benefits over-issued from 9/2005-6/2006. The debt establishment is AFFIRMED.
