CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program which provides financial assistance for disabled persons is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACCS, R 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, R 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

Additionally, the Department denied the Claimant's application for failure to provide current bank statements for the bank accounts listed in the application by the Claimant. The information the Claimant did submit was old and incomplete. The bank information was dated 2009 for his wife's account and no information was supplied regarding current accounts. The Claimant receives a pension from his employer, but did not supply a recent statement. The statement submitted was dated 2007 and was not current. Clearly the Claimant did not properly respond to the requested verification and thus the Department correctly denied the application. BEM 130.

The Department also denied the Claimant's request on behalf of his son for Food Assistance and Medical Assistance. The Claimant's son is an adult, 20 years of age and must apply for medical on his own behalf. Thus the Department correctly denied the application on that basis. The Claimant's son may reapply for medical assistance on his own behalf.

As regards the Claimant's son's Food Assistance eligibility, it is clear that during the period of the application the Claimant's son was a full time student and was not working 20 hours per week as required to be considered eligible for Food Assistance, and thus the Department also correctly denied the Claimant's son's eligibility on that basis. BEM 245.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly       improperly

- closed Claimant's case.
- denied Claimant's application.
- reduced Claimant's benefits.
