FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on December 1, 2011 to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has has not requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FIP FAP SDA CDC MA benefits during the period of April 2010, through March 31, 2011.
4. Respondent was was not aware of the responsibility to report employment and changes of income from employment. however, the Respondent's AHR and assigned social worker indicated that he may have not understood all the questions due to his mental limitations.
5. Respondent did report the stoppage of unemployment income to the Department.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period they are considering the fraud period is April 8, 2010 through March 31, 2011.
7. At the time the Respondent completed the application for assistance in April 2010, his spouse was not living in the household as they were separated. The Respondent's spouse did not live with him in the household throughout the fraud period.
8. During the alleged fraud period, the Department alleged that Respondent was issued a total amount of $6558 in FIP FAP SDA CDC MA benefits from the State of Michigan.
9. The precise amount that the Respondent was entitled to receive in FAP benefits was not established as the Respondent's spouse was not living in the household.
10. The Department did not establish the amount of the alleged overissuance by issuance summaries or FAP budgets for the months in question.
11. Respondent did did not receive an OI in the amount of $6558 under the FIP FAP SDA CDC MA program.

12. The Department has has not established that Respondent committed an IPV.

13. This was Respondent's first second third alleged IPV.

14. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, Rule 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700.

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities.

IPV is suspected when there is clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for cases when:

- benefit overissuances are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfare fraud is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
- the total overissuance amount is $1000 or more, or
- the total overissuance amount is less than $1000, and
 - the group has a previous Intentional Program Violation, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance,
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IPV disqualifies that client from receiving certain program benefits. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them. Other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the overissuance relates to MA.

Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720.

Additionally, the evidence presented by the OIG at the hearing clearly established that the Respondent's spouse was working and employed on the date of the application and at the time of the redetermination. However, based upon the credible testimony of the Respondent, his wife was not living in the household for the period of the overissuance. Based upon this credible testimony, the Respondent's spouse's income would not be included in the FAP benefit calculation. Both forms signed by the Respondent indicate that no employment income is being received by the group. This is consistent with his testimony that his spouse was not living in the household. Both forms submitted to the Department also indicate that his spouse was a household member. The evidence also established that the Respondent's reading and writing skills are somewhat limited and he was suffering from mental illness at the time, and thus was assisted by his 14 year old daughter, a minor in completing the application. Additionally, the social worker assigned to the Respondent's case believed that because the Respondent and his wife were separated at the time, but were not "legally separated, that he had to include his spouse as a household member.

Based on this evidence, it is found the Respondent did not knowingly with intent to conceal information, complete the form falsely as the Respondent's spouse did not live in the household during the fraud period in question. Therefore, an Intentional Program Violation is not established, nor is the amount of the overissuance.

Notwithstanding, the conclusion that the Respondent's testimony regarding his wife not living in the household during the fraud period, the Department also failed to present an issuance summary demonstrating the amount of FAP benefits that were actually received. For these reasons the Department did not sustain its burden to prove an overissuance. Further, the Respondent's spouse's income would not be properly included as she was not living in the household.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, concludes that:
