CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

☐ The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

☐ The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, Rule 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

☐ The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

Claimant's representative applied for MA benefits on April 20, 2011. The Department sent a verification request to Claimant's address on April 27, 2011. Verifications were due back to the Department on May 9, 2011. On May 16, 2011, the Department denied Claimant's application for failure to return verifications. Claimant's representative sent an email on July 15, 2011, indicating they had received a request for verifications and requested the Department provide an accurate due date. Claimant's representative asserts they never received the verification checklist until July 15, 2011. The Department had denied the application and provided a copy of the notice sent to Claimant's address. The Department failed to provide documentation to support their assertion that the notice of case action or the verification checklist had been sent to Claimant's representative.

The first issue to be address is whether the hearing request is timely. This Administrative Law Judge finds the request is timely. The Department failed to provide documentation demonstrating a notice of case action was sent to Claimant's representative prior to November 17, 2011. Without demonstrating proper notice being given, Claimant cannot be barred from requesting a hearing on an action discovered over 90 days. On November 17, 2011, the Department, as indicated above, faxed a copy of the April 20, 2011, application denial dated May 16, 2011, to Claimant's representative. This fax is the only piece of evidence submitted by the Department demonstrating the case action notice was given to Claimant's representative.

The second issue is whether the Department properly requested verifications from Claimant in accordance with policy. The Department asserts that Claimant's representative, by sending an email in July 2011, demonstrates that Claimant's representative received the checklist. The Department failed to produce a copy of the verification checklist indicating it was sent to Claimant's representative as policy requires. Claimant's representative, in turn, stated they failed to receive a copy of the checklist from them until July 15, 2011, at which point evidence shows they contacted the Department to inquire about the verifications. At the time of inquiry, they were unaware the Department had denied Claimant's application. On October 28, 2011, Claimant's representative sent in a response to the requested verifications and indicated they were still pursuing additional information.

The Department failed, as indicated above, to provide documentation to support a verification checklist was sent to Claimant's representative prior to the case denial on May 16, 2011. The Department must, according to policy, send items such as verification checklists and case action notices to a claimant's representative. In this case, the Department failed to do so.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department

properly denied Claimant's application	improperly denied Claimant's application
properly closed Claimant's case	improperly closed Claimant's case

for:	🗌 AMP [FIP] FAP 🔀 MA	🗌 SDA 🗌	CDC.
