ISSUE

Whether the Respondent committed Food Assistance Program ("FAP") Intentional Program Violation ("IPV") for the period from October 2009 through August 2010?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Respondent submitted a public assistance application seeking FAP benefits on March 26, 2009. (Exhibit 1, pp. 6 – 13)
2. The Respondent was a FAP recipient for the period at issue, October 2009 through August 2010.
3. On February 4, 2010, the Respondent completed her FAP redetermination putting her residence in Michigan. (Exhibit 1, pp. 14 – 17)

4. For the period at issue, the Respondent was a resident of Tennessee. (Exhibit 1, pp. 21 – 23)
5. The Respondent completed an application for public assistance, acknowledging her responsibility to report changes in circumstances, to include changes in residency to the Department within ten days of the change. (Exhibit 1, pp. 13, 17)
6. The Respondent failed to notify the Department of her change in residency, even at her FAP redetermination in February 2010.
7. The Respondent used her Michigan FAP benefits in Tennessee for the period from October 2009 through August 2010. (Exhibit 1, pp. 18 – 20)
8. As a result, the Respondent received an over-issuance of FAP benefits for the period from October 2009 through August 2010 in the amount of $2,200.00. (Exhibit 1, p. 24, 25)
9. The Department sent Respondent written notice of the intentional program violation over-issuance and repayment agreement which the Respondent did not sign.
10. This is Respondent's first intentional program violation or wilful withholding of information needed to determine Respondent's eligibility for public assistance.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program, formerly known as the Food Stamp program, is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations ("CFR"). The Department of Human Services, formerly known as the Family Independence Agency, administers the FAP program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq. and MAC R 400.3001-3015. Departmental policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual ("BAM"), the Bridges Eligibility Manual ("BEM"), and the Bridges Reference Tables ("RFT").

In this case, the Department requested a disqualification hearing to establish an over-issuance of benefits as a result of an Intentional Program Violation ("IPV"). The Department requests that the Respondent be disqualified from benefits and seeks recoupment of the over-issuance. An over-issuance ("OI") occurs when a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive. BAM 700. A claim is the resulting debt created by the over-issuance of benefits. BAM 700. Recoupment is an action to identify and recover a benefit OI. BAM 700. During the eligibility determination and while the case is active, clients are repeatedly reminded of reporting responsibilities through explanation at application/determination interviews, notices and pamphlets, as well as acknowledgments on the application. BAM 700. Applicants and recipients are required to provide complete and accurate information and to notify the Department of any changes in circumstances that may affect eligibility or benefit amount within 10 days. BAM 105. Incorrect or omitted information causing an OI can result in cash repayment or benefit reduction. BAM 700.

To be eligible for benefits, a person must be a Michigan resident. BEM 220. A person is a resident if s/he:

- is not receiving assistance from another state; and
- is living in Michigan, except for a temporary absence, and
- intends to remain in the state permanently or indefinitely.

BEM 220

A suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The customer intentionally failed to report or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The customer was cleared and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The customer has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities. BAM 720.

An IPV is suspected when there is clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720. A recipient found to have committed an intentional program violation is disqualified for one year for the first violation. BAM 720.

In the record presented, the Department established through clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent lived in Tennessee during the period at issue, October 2009 through August 2010, and continued to use her Michigan FAP benefits. There is no evidence on the record of any justifiable excuse for the Respondent's failure to report her change in residency. The Department is entitled to recoup the $2,200.00 FAP over-issuance for the period from October 2009 through August 2010. This is the Respondent's first intentional program violation, therefore, the 12-month penalty in effect at the time of said violation is applicable.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Department established through clear and convincing evidence the Respondent committed her first FAP IPV for the period from November 2010 through May 2011.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED:

1. The Respondent is personally ineligible to participate in the FAP program for 12 months.
2. The disqualification period shall be applied immediately.
3. The Respondent shall be required to reimburse the Department the FAP benefits ineligibly received in the amount of $2,200.00 for the period from October 2009 through August 2010.
