CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The present case involves an alleged failure by Claimant to verify self-employment income. It was not disputed that DHS requested verification of self-employment from Claimant via Verification Checklist. It was also not disputed that Claimant responded to receipt of the VCL by calling her DHS specialist. Claimant credibly testified that the DHS specialist advised her that she could satisfy the verification requirement by submitting a notarized statement signed by Claimant's spouse indicating that the business had no income. It was not disputed that Claimant submitted a statement (see Exhibit C1) which complied with what she claims that DHS verbally requested.

DHS responded that something slightly more specific than what Claimant submitted was requested. DHS contended that the submitted verification needed a precise start date for the business and required the signatures of Claimant and her spouse. The submitted statement was only signed by Claimant's spouse and referred to a 2010 start of the business; DHS indicated that a precise start date was expected.

Prior to an analysis of testimony and policy, some background information concerning the business is appropriate. Claimant stated that her husband tried to make extra money involving stamped concrete. Her husband testified that he made up business cards and flyers in an attempt to drum up business. He stated that since the business started, the business has received $0 income, though the business is still technically active. Claimant characterized the business as her husband's rather than her own.

There was little basis for either of the DHS specified requirements. A requirement for Claimant's signature on the statement that the business had $0 income is superfluous. DHS could not produce a valid reason for requiring Claimant's signature beyond her husband's signature. DHS stated that precise start date was necessary to establish whether Claimant received an overissuance of FAP benefits in prior months. The start date was irrelevant to ongoing FAP benefits; what income Claimant received two years ago would not prevent DHS from determining ongoing FAP benefit eligibility. More importantly, the start date was irrelevant as long as the business had $0 income.

Based on the presented evidence, it is found that Claimant complied with the DHS self-employment verification request. Accordingly, it is found that DHS erred in terminating Claimant's FAP benefit eligibility for allegedly failing to verify self-employment income.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly improperly

- closed Claimant's case.
- denied Claimant's application.
- reduced Claimant's benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department did act properly. did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.

THE DEPARTMENT IS ORDERED TO DO THE FOLLOWING WITHIN 10 DAYS OF THE DATE OF MAILING OF THIS DECISION AND ORDER:

1. reinstate Claimant's FAP benefit eligibility effective 2/2012 subject to the finding that Claimant complied with the verification of self-employment income; and
2. process Claimant's ongoing FAP benefit eligibility including supplementing Claimant for any benefits not received as a result of the improper FAP benefit termination.
