CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, Rule 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

In the instant case, Claimant was sent a redetermination notification and paperwork to complete and return by February 3, 2012. Claimant testified he received the paperwork on January 19, 2012. Claimant testified he mailed the paperwork back to the Department on January 24, 2012. Claimant indicated he waited for the Department to call him to complete his phone interview on February 3, 2012, and he was never called. The Department testified the review materials were never received and, therefore, a call was not placed to Claimant on February 3, 2012.

Claimant had requested his benefits remain open pending a hearing. However, the case action was based on the certification period ending; therefore, this was not an option. Claimant testified he made calls and attempted to resolve the matter prior to the case closure. He played a voicemail from his worker received on February 29, 2012. The voicemail instructed Claimant to submit his paperwork by 3 pm that day in order to prevent case closure. Claimant alleged he was in the hospital and failed to receive the voicemail until his release after 5 pm on February 29, 2012.

The issue, however, in the instant case is simply whether the Department properly processed Claimant's redetermination. The Department admitted they did not place the interview call as indicated on the redetermination paperwork. The Department testified the reason no call was made was because Claimant failed to return his redetermination paperwork. The Department's redetermination paperwork allows for submission on February 3, 2012. The failure to have the paperwork in hand at the time of the appointment would not remove the Department's obligation to complete the phone interview. The Department should have completed the interview and, if the paperwork was not in hand during the interview, properly inform Claimant the paperwork was not received. While the Department's reason for denial is Claimant's failure to submit redetermination paperwork, the Department itself failed to complete the interview as required. This Administrative Law Judge found Claimant credible regarding his assertion that he mailed back paperwork to the Department on January 24, 2012.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department for:  AMP  FIP  FAP  MA  SDA  CDC.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department  did act properly.  did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's  AMP  FIP  FAP  MA  SDA  CDC decision is  AFFIRMED  REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.

THE DEPARTMENT IS ORDERED TO DO THE FOLLOWING WITHIN 10 DAYS OF THE DATE OF MAILING OF THIS DECISION AND ORDER:

1. Initiate redetermination of Claimant's FAP and MA case;
2. Reinstate benefits back to date of closure if eligible and issue supplemental benefits if eligible;
3. Issue a notice of case action.
