CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACS R 400.3101-3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1997 AACS R 400.3001-3015

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program which provides financial assistance for disabled persons is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1998-2000 AACS R 400.3151-400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996.

The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1997 AACR 400.5001-5015.

Claimant testified that she received and turned in the requested verifications shortly after the verification checklist was sent. However, Claimant testified that when she attempted to leave the verifications in the drop box, the security guard in the lobby made Claimant remove her verifications from the envelope and hand them to the security guard. Claimant stated that the verifications were then placed in an envelope addressed to a caseworker with a similar name, but not the name of the caseworker in charge of Claimant's case.

The Department confirmed on the record that a caseworker with the name Claimant told the security guard does indeed work at the District office in question. Given that Claimant expressed details in her story that corresponded with known details of the District in question, the Administrative Law Judge finds the allegations credible. As the story was not rebutted, and the allegations and Claimant are credible, the Administrative Law Judge holds that Claimant did turn in the requested verifications to the Department, though Claimant's caseworker never received them due to clerical error. As such, Claimant's application was denied in error.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly improperly closed Claimant's case.

denied Claimant's application.

reduced Claimant's benefits.
